CHAPTER ONE: THE END TIMES ARE UPON US

It is unfortunate, but many of us get up every morning expecting that we will never see another sunset. With the world situation the way it is -- and promises to be! -- I don't think many of us would be too surprised to find out that some world leader had finally pushed the panic button that means the start of World War III. By writing this book, I don't mean to frighten the reader, but I do think you have the right to be prepared for what might happen in the very near -- the immediate! -- future. There is one thing that scientists, scholars, Biblical students, psychics and UFO contactees all seem to agree on, and that is that our planet is DOOMED. They may all see it happening in a slightly different way, but they agree one hundred percent that the End Times are upon us.

THE SITUATION KEEPS GETTING

WORSE

Everyday the situation seems to get worse. Turn on the television, pick up a paper or read a news magazine and it's obvious that the very fiber of society is breaking down around us.

Our civilization seems to be facing problems in three different areas -- all of which could be of devastating consequences.

Crime in our inner cities is out of control. Purse and jewelry snatchers ride the mass transit systems looking for victims. People are pushed in front of subway trains. Gangs of youths threaten bus riders. Muggings take place every few minutes. Hard drugs are sold openly in the street. It is unsafe in many communities to go out at night. Theatergoers have been killed in the heart of Times Square after being hit on the head by bricks thrown off the roofs of nearby buildings. An attractive female musician was recently sexually molested, strangled and thrown down an elevator shaft during a break in a performance at Lincoln Center. Elderly people are repeated victims of break-ins and robberies. Gun-toting madmen stalk the streets mortally wounding innocent bystanders. All around us authority is being challenged, and authority appears powerless to do anything about the situation.

On the international scene, war and rumors of war appear on every horizon. Governments battle each other endlessly over political and religious ideals, as well as for that valuable substance known as oil. World War III could start any minute, as any number of nations now have the capability to build nuclear weapons.

In Iran and other parts of the globe, the United States is accused of Imperialism and told not to meddle in the internal affairs of other nations. We are told to keep out, or else! Meanwhile, the Soviet Union tries to expand its influence and thinks nothing of invading foreign soil in the name of Communism. The tension is mounting in both the East and the West. Headlines talk openly about who may push the panic button first and send missiles flying to distant targets. Both sides think they are right and won't budge an inch. They appear determined to have their way, and the people be damned. And how could we forget the always tense situation between Israel and the Arab nations? They have long been at war, but now with the advent of nuclear weapons, they could easily drag the rest of the world into the battle.

Ecologically the Earth is in a state of turmoil. Everyday we hear about a new natural disaster of some sort. The planet we live on seems to be reeling back and forth, as if it is trying to rid itself of all the manmade problems we are forcing upon this once green planet. One is made to think twice about all the earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, tidal waves, freak storms, changing weather, and all the strange things that continue to happen around us. It becomes apparent that there is just cause for Mother Nature to "freak out" and turn against us. Calm thinking is necessary, but can all these catastrophies be coincidental? You and I would be utter fools to believe so.

TIME IS TICKING AWAY

Ask the man in the street and the vast majority will tell you they are convinced time is ticking away. And while prophets of doom have existed in other eras, there has never been such unanimous agreement as to the state of affairs we find ourselves in.

Many psychics and sensitives are leaving metropolitan areas and are telling their friends to "get out" before it is too late. They feel that the large cities will not be "safe" places to reside should our problems continue to mount.

There is a definite stillness in the air which indicates to anyone whose "third eye" is open, that things are not as they should be. The "vibes," if you care to call them that, are certainly not very good. I for one have noticed lately that people are starting to talk of survival if the worse does come. They don't seem exactly sure of the way it will arrive. It could, they feel psychically, be a war, a global disaster, or some sort of BIG change in their own life that will uproot them in the middle of what they are doing.

As a researcher who has always been interested in expanding my knowledge of prophecy, UFO contacts, and psychic matters in general, I have recently found myself collecting a vast assortment of material from various sources, pertaining to the changing times in which we find ourselves thrown. I seem mysteriously drawn to this project. Over the years, I have established many personal friendships with New Age leaders. These contacts have proven very valuable in my obtaining bits and pieces of important research data. This data has led me to believe the earth could soon be going through what I call a DOOMSDAY PHASE.

While all this may sound very negative, there is a positive side to my findings, for we are being told by a "highly intelligent authority" what can be done to save our necks. Some of us, it seems, will actually be removed from this troubled planet before the end arrives. Reading this unusual book word for word could possibly save your life!

CHAPTER TWO: LOOK TO THE STARS FOR SALVATION

Even the most skeptical of persons would find it difficult to admit that strange things haven't been seen in the sky. Of course, there is considerable dispute about just what has been observed. The scientific approach seems to be something like this: "I'll hide my head in the sand and it will go away." But the truth of the matter is that flying saucers have been around one hell of a long time. Biblical and historical references suggest they have been "watching over" us for centuries (perhaps since the beginning of time). In recent years, they showed up in ever-increasing numbers following World War II and the explosion of the first Atomic bomb.

Every day there are at least two new reports from somewhere in the world. During peak sighting periods that figure is increased by leaps and bounds. UFOs have been picked up on radar. They have been chased by our fastest military planes. They have landed many, many times, and have left behind physical evidence in the form of burned patches of earth, and indentations in the soil, as well as strange artifacts, like nothing to be found elsewhere on our planet.

What is not so widely known is that hundreds of ordinary people like you and I have actually come face-to-face with the aliens who operate these futuristic craft. And while a variety of space beings have been seen, the vast majority of humanoids who have been encountered look remarkably human. In fact, there are even those who say that aliens have arrived on this planet and are living amongst us.

In recent years -- since 1950 or thereabouts -- a small segment of the population who refer to themselves as "contactees" have come forward and claimed to be in some sort of communication with the UFO-nauts, on a regular basis. In most cases no verbal words are spoken. Instead, there appears to be a transference of thought. A sort of mind-to-mind contact where the exchange of ideas is done via ESP or mental telepathy. It would appear from these cases that we are dealing with a superior intelligence; a race of beings who are thousands of years beyond our present state of development. In almost all of these contact stories a feeling of peace, love and warmth is felt radiating from these interplanetary beings. They tell us that they are coming here to assist humankind through these troubled times. They bring with them a general warning which tells us we are doomed unless we alter our ways. They say that they themselves have gone through similar periods and survived because they learned how to live in harmony with the Universe as well as their fellow beings. They are offering their hand in help if we will listen and heed their words. However, they have informed all those who are willing to listen that they are powerless to prevent the worst from taking place if we refuse to acknowledge their existence -- something which world leaders and the military have refused to do.

Strange UFOs have been seen in recent years hovering over every civilized country.

Aliens from other worlds have been landing on this planet for several decades in craft which we call UFOs or flying saucers. Some people have even made contact with these beings and say they are here to help us in our present situation.

The themes that they keep harping on are those we have already mentioned, mainly world tension, ecological decay and the collapse of our society. The following cases taken from the files of the UFO REVIEW, the world's only flying saucer newspaper, amply illustrate this point.

CASE NUMBER ONE - JOHNNY SANDS, JANUARY 29TH, 1976, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

"I was 14 or 15 miles outside of Vegas, heading Southwest on the Blue Diamond Highway," states Country-Western singer, Johnny Sands, who had been performing that evening in a well known Las Vegas hotel. "I was headed back into town when I noticed a light to the side of me coming along the same way I was driving. It was quite high up, but it was losing altitude." Sands' car malfunctioned and he thought he was running short of fuel. "I pulled over to the side of the road and got out of the automobile. I opened the gas cap and shook the rear of the car to see if the gas would flush. I could hear gas so I went around to the front of the car and raised the hood. As I pushed the hood upward over my head I noticed there was a craft directly over me, about a thousand feet in the sky."

The musician says the craft landed and two beings emerged from the object. One of the UFO-nauts proceeded to walk toward Sands until he stood right in front of him. "The being looked to be about 5 feet 8 inches tall and was completely bald. His face was really pale. He had no eyebrows, no eyelashes -- no hair at all. To me he looked like somebody frozen to death."

The alien and the singer communicated by telepathy. "He touched something on his belt and right after he did so I got impressions in my mind. It was like listening to someone talking over the telephone from a great distance away." The being asked what the lights were in the distance and what Sands was doing in the desert.

At one point during their conversation the alien placed his hands behind his back and brought them back out in front of him seconds later. "In his hands," notes Sands, "he held a silver ball the approximate size of a basketball. He held it out in front of him as he turned back to me. He let the ball go and it floated there right in front of us. He passed his hands over the object and made it start rotating in a circular motion as the earth rotates around the sun. He started to explain something that tied in with our nuclear devices, and why they are coming here. He said nuclear devices cause a 'confliction' in the galaxy -- those were his exact words. He then put his hand over the top of the ball, and as he did so there was an explosion just above its smooth surface. There was a flash, a minor explosion like a fire-cracker going off and an eruption similar to a volcano. Next, the ball started to act up a bit, as if it were being stirred up by the explosion. He said that when we use nuclear devices that it causes both our world as well as his planet to vibrate like this. He added that because of these tremors, the rotation of the Earth is slowing down, and we are actually losing time, and thus we grow older much faster." Sands admits that the alien did not go into detail nor did he explain any of the things which he said. However, the performer contends that all during the conversation he felt like he was talking to a very wise person, who had been around a long time.

CASE NUMBER TWO - HELIO AGUIAR, APRIL 24TH, 1959, BRAZILIAN COAST

Senor Helio Aguiar was riding a motorcycle along the Brazilian coast near Amaralio when he happened to see a "black spot" out over the Atlantic Ocean. As the object came closer it resembled a large silvery disc. There were windows on the craft and a number of strange markings on the underbelly of the UFO. In front of the witness the object played "looping the loop" in the sky. As the UFO approached, Senor Aguiar's motorcycle stalled and he felt a strong pressure on his head. For a brief period of time the witness lost consciousness. When he came to he found clutched in his hand a piece of paper upon which he had apparently written a message while he was unconscious. The message was short and quite simple. It read: "Put an absolute stop to all atomic tests for war-like purposes. The balance of the Universe is threatened. We shall remain vigilant and ready to intervene."

CASE NUMBER THREE - STUART WHITMAN, NOVEMBER, 1965, NEW YORK CITY

Stuart Whitman is not just another UFO witness. He also just happens to be one of Hollywood's most talented actors, who is probably best known for his appearance in the award-winning motion picture, The Sound and the Fury. Whitman's soul searching experience occurred on the night of the famous blackout when lights went out up and down the east coast.

The veteran performer had just that afternoon checked in at a mid-town Manhattan hotel. He had gone to bed reasonably early when around one in the morning a high-pitched buzzing sound began to fill the room arousing him from his slumber. From out of the dark recesses of the room, he heard his name being called repeatedly. "WHITMAN -- WHITMAN, do you hear us?" Lifting himself onto his elbows the dedicated actor scanned his immediate surroundings in an effort to detect who was calling out his name. "My first impression was that someone from the hotel had unlocked my door with a master key and was trying to attract my attention." The only source of light around him seemed to be coming from outside his hotel room. "I parted the curtains and looked out onto a city thrown into total darkness. I had gone to bed earlier because I realized there was no place to go and nothing to do. The great metropolis that is New York had come to a total standstill."

As he stood by the window which looked out over Central Park, Whitman saw "two brightly lit orange-colored eggs," that were hovering in a haze not more than a hundred yards away from him.

As he watched he heard the mysterious "voice" speak once again. "They told me that they -- the intelligence behind UFOs -- were responsible for the blackout. They said they had taken this action to prove to the people of the world that they are real and capable of phenomenal undertakings. The reason for their being involved in such an 'experiment' they said, was obvious. They told me they are worried over our continued testing and development of nuclear weapons. This to them was a peaceful 'show of force'. In addition, they are apparently concerned about the chaos of society and the decay of our world governments. They said the blackout was only a small demonstration of the power they possess to stop us from annihilating our civilization and nearby planets. They said in so many words that they will interfere if we go too far in our war-like attitudes. They claimed that they are able to stop all electrical apparatus from functioning, and could put a halt to our normal activities any time they wanted to!"

Stuart Whitman's strange experience was written up in several papers at the time, but was soon forgotten. However, several years after the blackout I, along with fellow researcher, Harold Salkin, interviewed the actor on the telephone and managed to get additional details that were not given wide circulation at the time.

Such cases similar to those we have detailed above literally abound in UFO literature. However, many of the civilian UFO research groups refuse to give credit to such stories, wishing to believe reports of lights in the sky, but rejecting all alien philosophy that might come through during any close encounter. Other reports like these include the story of a Soviet woman parachutist who said that she had been "captured" in mid-air and "given a message for the authorities," which told them to disarm their nuclear warheads, as well as the more recent case of sergeant Charles L. Moody who was abducted on board a UFO while in the Arizona desert. According to Moody, beings visiting Earth from several other planets "fear for their own lives" because of what is happening on our planet. He says their mission is a peaceful one, but that they will "protect themselves at all costs."

AN ECOLOGICAL MISSION

Following the repeated appearance of UFOs and alien beings in North Bergen (N.J.) Park, Chicago parapsychologist Warren Freiberg flew into Newark Airport with his trance medium wife to try and make contact with the space intelligence responsible for these sightings. During what appeared to be a legitimate mental contact, Libby-Collins' Freiberg's vocal cords were actually taken over by an alien who identified himself as Caldon. "You are misusing your environment...Your environment is our environment." Caldon warned, "We will soon return in mass. to warn your people that if you do not stop your present ways, time will be short for all of us. " The alien voice indicated that his people come from another dimension, and that what happens here on earth affects his race as well as ours.

Warren and Libby-Collins Freiberg try to contact via telepathy the UFO entities who were said to be landing on a regular basis in New Jersey's North Bergen Park.

CHAPTER THREE: PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS

It is not our purpose to validate psychic phenomena or even such simple matters as the reality of extrasensory perception. Most of those "open minded" enough to purchase such a book as this, must already be familiar with the valuable research done by investigators such as the late Prof. J.B. Rhine of Duke University.

Taking into consideration the fact that UFO pilots and crew members must be "light years" beyond where we stand on the evolutionary scale, it stands to reason that their psychic abilities would have progressed to the point where they are able to accomplish almost any feat. Situated in various countries around the world are highly sensitive earthlings who are able to "tune in" to the wave lengths of these alien beings and actually act as sort of a "radio receiver" in picking up messages that are being "beamed" from beyond our atmosphere. Some of this information is taken down in the form of automatic writing, but usually the man or woman actually allows his vocal cords to be taken over so that there is no chance for human error or misinterpretation.

The majority of "sermons" which have been delivered through these "Channels" as they are often referred to, deal with upcoming events and trends on earth, primarily geological, meteorological and political. What makes it quite obvious that no fraud is being committed by these "Channels" is the fact that the messages are all similar even though they are "beamed" to vastly separate parts of the world. Also beyond mere coincidence is the astounding fact that the extraterrestrials who are extending their hand in friendship, are almost always have the same names. Names that keep cropping up over and over again in such communications include Monka, Mohada, Deska, and most popular of all. Ashtar. It is repeatedly stated that Ashtar is in charge of thousands of space ships as well as the "Commander of ten million space men, now occupying bases established within range of your planet." Some of the beings who are making themselves heard are supposedly human just as we are -- flesh and blood creatures -- while others have rid themselves of their physical bodies and now exist in a sort of computerized form. These entities of vast knowledge are said to travel from solar system to solar system in huge "Mother Ships" but sometimes they actually take up residence on other planets which orbit around our sun. For according to these channels, believe it or not, there is supposedly intelligent life on Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and so forth -- this, despite what astronomers and other scientists might have to say. Though some of this life may be in the solid form such as we humans, many of these beings are said to exist on higher levels of vibration and in other dimensions which are normally invisible to the human eye.

We will not try to sway your beliefs. We simply ask that you read the information that is being passed along and judge for yourself its validity. We ask nothing but your attention and a promise that you will study this material carefully for your own benefit, and not for ours.

WHY THEY COME AND WHAT IT IS THEY WANT

"They do not wish to cause us any harm. They don't care to be recognized or hassled by people, and so they frequently share helpful information through mental telepathy," acknowledges psychic Bertie Catchings of Dallas, Texas, who is highly thought of in her community, having assisted families and law officers in over 50 crime-related cases.

The psychic says that aliens are working in hospitals, as well as energy-related fields, space technology and in various jobs related to science. Their characteristics include being very efficient, above average in intelligence, easy to get along with, and they never ask questions except about their duties. They look like earth people and include the entire spectrum of race characteristics and color. They dress simply, with very little jewelry except a watch. They need little sleep, and they always seem to be in excellent health. Sometimes they have brown markings on their hands and arms that form star patterns. Their purpose is to study earth in order to gain knowledge that will be helpful to the entire universe. For instance, the people of earth have many illnesses that are caused by the pollution of air and water. Most of earth's problems are not experienced on other planets -- they can prevent them from happening by studying our mistakes.

Dr. Wanda M. Lockwood of Sedalia, Colorado, a student of metaphysics who holds a doctor's degree from the Brotherhood of the White Temple says that the entire Cosmos is nearing its material end, and that all intelligences from all dimensions, interlocking spaces and planets must at this time establish enduring harmony with one another.

Dr. Lockwood believes that we are presently 23 years into the Age of Aquarius, and that the so-called "Aliens of Light" are working very vigorously to bring Earth in perfect rapport with the rest of the universe. Dr. Lockwood maintains that included among the goals of the UFO-nauts are the following principles:

1. Join earthman as one of them.
2. Counsel and train man in higher ways.
3. Aid the peace-makers whenever danger threatens them.
4. Help prepare earth for the great trials soon to besiege this planet.
5. Aid man in evolving peace and technology.
6. Reveal high-secret knowledge to those who qualify through virtue.

Psychic Bertie Catchings of Dallas, Texas

UFO-nauts are able to walk the Earth undetected, supposedly because they look so human. Dr. Wanda M. Lockwood did this drawing of a

Pictured in front of a bell-shaped saucer that George Adamski photographed, Laura Mundo says the same type of craft passed over her home in Sept., 1955.

7. Act as a bridge between obsolete beliefs and superstitions, to greater and true teachings and systems.
8. Help establish Universal Brotherhood, total acceptance and understanding of all species, regardless of form or culture.
9. Aid man in re-awakening his 6th sense, the sense which acts as his preserver of harmony and peace.
10. Teach the secrets of immortality and eternal youth.
11. Teach man how to manipulate the fixed Universal Laws.

Dr. Lockwood is convinced that the main reason we are being visited at this time, is due to the fact that the UFO-nauts are "helping to prepare man for the last great catastrophe. It's very near now," she states. "Possibly within the next 15 years, or it may even occur much sooner, before 1985. The exact time is unknown. It may involve a devastating global war or vast earthquakes, or possibly a combination of quakes triggered by mighty nuclear weapons."

Others who have studied all the available information feel pretty much the same way. For example, Laura Mundo, who runs the Flying Saucer Information Center in Inkster, Michigan believes that alien beings are trying to help us to help ourselves, "before the atmosphere becomes unbearable due to increased sunspot activity, which is creating extremes in weather, people's actions, natural catastrophes and causing confusion in general."

Like many other psychics, UFO contactees and New Age channels we have conversed with, Laura is of the opinion that the UFO-nauts are here to help us through a period of great crisis. "Those who qualify," she states, "will be taken to a place of safety in the space people's insulated ships, through the unbelievable planetary turmoil, and come back after the sunspots settle down." Laura says that as far back as 1955 she received a message on her shortwave radio from a spaceman telling her that time was short for mankind. She is convinced this message is coming true today.

Almost every clairvoyant we have communicated with agrees that these changes are going to happen, though they insist there is no way of telling how extreme they will be. There are even some who insist the planet will become uninhabitable for years to come because of an axis shift which will send our planet into another orbit and change the climates on the planet.

I have more or less concluded that this information is valid and that our time is limited here on earth. What I have tried to determine through my own research efforts is who will be taken from this planet and how we should make ourselves ready. I have tried to gather as much specific information as possible and through this book I am passing this information on to you. I ask that you share it with all those who will listen.

CHAPTER FOUR: AND THE EARTH SHALL TREMBLE

In 1934 the Sleeping Prophet of Virginia Beach, Edgar Cayce, uttered the following words while in a sleep-like state:

"THE EARTH WILL BE BROKEN UP IN MANY PLACES. THE EARLY PORTION WILL SEE A CHANGE IN THE PHYSICAL ASPECT OF THE WEST COAST OF AMERICA. . .THE EARTH WILL BE BROKEN UP IN THE WESTERN PORTION OF AMERICA. . .AND THESE CHANGES WILL BEGIN IN THOSE PERIODS IN FIFTY-EIGHT TO NINETY-FIVE. . .LOS ANGELES, SAN FRANCISCO, MOST ALL OF THESE WILL BE AMONG THOSE THAT WILL BE DESTROYED -- BEFORE NEW YORK EVEN."

Cayce repeatedly claimed that he foresaw a complete upheaval that would change the course of the Mississippi and put both the coast of Southern California and New York City beneath water. He saw in conjunction with this wide spread disruption of land masses an increase in earthquakes, volcanic eruptions and freak weather conditions. Cayce, as well as many other seers who voiced their opinions in the years that followed, said this upheaval would start to flare up in the latter part of the 1970's, and increase in strength throughout the decade to come.

What makes the predictions of these psychics so frightening is the fact that the world of science has also been talking of such events that could easily alter the geography of this planet.

SUPER STORMS PREDICTED

Recently, Howard Sargent of the Space Environment Services Center located in Boulder, Colorado made a startling announcement. He predicted that in the next few years our planet would probably be struck by magnetic "super storms" that could cause unprecedented electrical blackouts. There would be extended periods where we would be unable to receive or send radio signals, thus disrupting our communications systems on a world wide basis.

You do not have to be a genius to realize what the outcome of such a fierce storm might be. The planet would be thrown into utter chaos, and if they wanted, this would be an opportune time for our enemies to attack. Radar scopes would go blank. Military bases around the world would be unable to contact each other. Emergency information could not be broadcast. We would be at the mercy of those who are dead set against us. There is little way of telling what the end result might be, but it probably wouldn't be good!

The Space Environment Services Center spokesman explained that these storms would be due to increased sunspot activity and that at this moment, the sun is giving off powerful outbursts called solar flares. Sargent says that the blackouts will happen when magnetic disruptions (caused by these solar flares) set up currents in power transmission lines that cause overloads and eventually cut off power.

Other scientists who carefully chart our weather conditions maintain that there is likely to be extensive change in our climate partly due to the changing jet stream as well as the eruption of Mount St. Helens, which spewed volcanic ash high into the atmosphere blocking out heat giving rays from the sun.

If you think that storms result in a few uprooted trees, some smashed windows and downed power lines, your obviously not familiar with the fury a bad storm can bring with it. In recent years there have been more hurricanes and freak rain storms than ever before. The house pictured in the above photo was actually turned on its side after a disastrous flood hit the Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania area following the arrival of Hurricane Agnes. The total damage from this storm was over $23 million, and extended over an area of 12 states.

So again we're jolted into seeing that what psychics and UFO channels have been predicting is now taking place and has been confirmed by our scientific community. These things are no longer to be joked at, but should constitute serious business for those of us who need to know when we are to "pull up stakes" and head to more secure regions which the space beings say will be "safe," at least for a short period of time.

Scientists say that we will see extremes of both hot and cold. All though this condition is going to get even worse, already we have seen dozens of elderly people dieing from temperatures of 100 degrees which struck several states for weeks and months upon end with no let up in sight.

Dr. Reid A. Bryson, Professor of Meteorology and director of the Institute of Environmental Studies at the University of Wisconsin, has gone on record as saying that within the next few years there may be glacial conditions in America. "Winters in the South will continue to get colder. Heavy snow will be common in the once-sunny South. Northern Florida might even be snowbound." He continues by noting that the main feature of our weather will be the way it will jump around like crazy. "New Orleans for example, might be bitterly cold one year and mild the next."

Another expert, Dr. Murray Mitchell Jr., project scientist at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, has said: "It is quite possible that we are headed for a more severe climate than any in recent history."

We emphasize such conditions because for many years, psychics have been predicting that strange weather patterns would be the order of the day as we approach the End Times. UFO channels have been coming up with similar information dating back to the early 1950's when so-called "Super Storms" were never even dreamed of, much less a reality.

MORE U.S. VOLCANOES COULD BLOW THEIR STACK

Nobody could have been more shocked and surprised than the residents of the state of Washington when Mount St. Helens blew her stack spewing potent and lethal volcanic ash high above the earth. There hadn't been a volcanic eruption in the continental United States since May 30, 1914, when Lassen Peak (Calif.) went off.

Recently, scientists have begun to warn that our luck may be running out. The photo below, taken in Iceland after a volcanic eruption paints a rather sobering picture of how molten lava can flow from an active volcano and cover an entire town up to the tops of homes in a matter of no time at all. Human life has been known to have been exterminated for miles around following such an eruption, as was the case when Mount St. Helens exploded. As an example of this wide spread devastation, in 1902 a volcano erupted on the island of Martinique, sending deadly "fireballs" into the air. More than 35,000 individuals were killed in the Mount Pelee eruption, most of them in the span of less than a minute.

In addition to Mount St. Helens which has gone off several times already and is still potentially dangerous, the Division of Volcanology at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. list the following seven volcanoes as still being active, though they are dormant at this particular moment.

- * MT. HOOD, OREGON
- * MT. RAINIER, WASHINGTON
- * MT. BAKER, CALIFORNIA
- * LASSEN PEAK, CALIFORNIA
- * MOUNT SHASTA, CALIFORNIA
- * MAUNA LOA, HAWAII
- * KILAUEA, HAWAII

Taking the predictions of the psychics we have talked with about the End Times seriously, as well as what the Space Brothers have to say, you can almost bet that several of the above listed volcanoes will shoot their top off in the not to distant future. Such eruptions on the "Cosmic Clock" are slated to begin happening right now, as such eruptions are said to be one of the signs that the worst is still to come.

STRANGE EARTHQUAKES IN OUT OF THE WAY PLACES

As man continues to do his best to rape the planet and take advantage of Mother Nature's delicate balance, there is every indication that our heavenly body is reacting in a very negative way, threatening to get rid of every last person who would poison it. In an article published in the first issue of a very stimulating magazine entitled "Future Times & Predictions" the author of a feature story called "Shakedown," makes the observation that: "Man has been blamed as the cause of earthquakes, for when he builds dams, drills for oil or pumps waters underground, he exerts much the same sort of pressure as molten rock does on the earth's crust. If you find this hard to believe, consider the recent study that showed that more earthquakes occur near large dams than in any other areas of the world. Or consider the fact that, in the 1960s, the first earthquakes in history were recorded in Denver, after the U.S. Army began dumping lethal wastes nearby. When residents started filing lawsuits against the army for the damage done by the numerous quakes, the army discontinued dumping, and the quakes came to a halt as suddenly and mysteriously as they began. Want more? In 1978, after the Soviet Union ran several underground nuclear tests, an earthquake shook Iran that killed 25,000 people. Several European seismologists remain convinced that it was those underground explosions that precipitated the earthquakes."

One observer of End Times phenomenon, Jon Douglas Singer, M.A. who lives in New Haven, Conn., has been keeping careful track of recent tremors, and is convinced earthquakes are on the increase not only just in the places where they usually occur but in places where they seldom cause damage.

The following is an exclusive report on his findings.

Earthquakes can destroy entire towns.

Most people usually think that earthquakes occur mainly in four areas: California and nearby regions in the Southwest along the San Andreas Fault; Latin America; the Mediterranean region, and Asia (especially in the Middle East and in Central Asia). However, earthquakes also occur in countries that don't usually experience such frightening events. When earthquakes such as these happen, people wonder why, and scientists are puzzled by these long dormant faults.

Many regions of the Northeastern coast of the United States, especially New England, have had tremors before, but not since the 1700s. From data I have recently sifted through it has become apparent that a new series of quakes has struck and threatens to happen again.

The first of the mysterious out-of-place earthquakes struck central and northern New Jersey, as well as portions of Southern New York State (including parts of New York City), on Tuesday, March 30, 1979, as people were preparing for their noon lunch breaks or going about their regular daily routine.

Articles published in New York newspapers during that week, gave the quake the name the Cheesquake Earthquake because, oddly enough, the point at which it was strongest, was Cheesquake, New Jersey. Windows shook along a line extending from Perth Amboy in southern New Jersey to Long Island, and people reported feeling great shocks.

On May 20, 1980, Walter Sullivan of the New York Times wrote about recent research on the cause of earthquakes in the Mississippi Valley region near Missouri, western Kentucky, and Tennessee. He revealed the findings by geologist Dr. Mark Zoback of the U.S. Geological Survey and others, who have found remnants of a deeply buried "rift valley" covered by two miles of earth and rock deposited about a hundred million years ago.

The rift causes a zone of weakness which occasionally spawns earthquakes as the continental masses over it drift apart, ever so gradually, in an east-west direction. This may be the cause of the great New Madrid, Missouri, earthquake of 1811-12, which altered the course of the Mississippi slightly and formed new lakes. Other earthquakes such as the Charleston, South Carolina in 1886, were probably caused by it. This rift may have caused a subterranean chain-reaction that ultimately set off the Ramapo Fault earthquakes in New York State and southern Ontario in Canada. This happened on January 17, 1980.

Oddly enough, shortly after Sullivan's article in the New York Times, an earthquake actually did rock 11-14 Midwestern and Appalachian states which included, Kentucky, Michigan, South Carolina, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Tennessee, Illinois, North Carolina, and even parts of New York state and southern Ontario.

The earthquake hit at 2:52 P.M., New York time, according to United States Geological Survey official Don Finley. He reported that the earthquake was as high as 5.1 on the Richter Scale. This is rare for the East, which very seldom has more than 4.0 level shocks. The epicenter or most powerful site of the quake was at a spot 45 miles southeast of Cincinnati. People felt their houses and radiators shaking. In fact, the quake was so strong that a Detroit Tin Tigers' baseball game was interrupted for a few minutes as fans actually noticed that the stadium swayed. Luckily nobody panicked, despite the fact that the ball park was packed with a crowd of 40,000. The announcer actually stopped the game to broadcast news of the earthquake over the P.A. system and shortly thereafter the game resumed when normality had returned. Everybody just sort of looked at each other, but showed no obvious signs of terror. Due to the level of self-control on the part of the fans, a disaster scenario was averted, considering that a stampede might have occurred in their haste to leave the stadium.

The next month, on August 20, 1980, the same area was again jarred by a quake. This one, to be sure, was less powerful but still big enough to make headlines. It measured 3.0 on the Richter scale and took place in the wee hours of the morning at 5:35 A.M. The tremor was felt from Lake Erie to Detroit.

The next event has an aura of eeriness about it, at least for me. I was talking with a friend over the phone and we were discussing the recent earthquakes in Algeria and Mexico. I told him I thought the earth was cracking up. At that very moment, an earthquake was rumbling through my hometown of New Haven. The shock measured 3.0 and was felt in such other nearby communities as Derby, East Haven, Ellsworth, Haddam, Moodus, North Stronington, and in the city of Meriden. This was October 24, 1980, and on that same day, at 8:41 P.M. there was an additional disturbance known as an "aftershock." The dark night was shaken by a weird rumbling sound. This quake reached 2.9 on the Richter Scale. My parents, Prof. Jerome L. Singer of Yale University, and Prof. Dorothy G. Singer of the University of Bridgeport, felt a tremor rumble through their house in Woodbridge, Conn. To them it sounded, "as if a boiler had been turned on." A resident of Hamden, Richard Ziemba, even saw his appliances move around slightly. Ansonia police reported that their switchboard was flooded with calls and in that town residents reportedly heard loud noises while they felt their houses shake.

Our local ABC-TV affiliate, Channel 8 Action News, reported that only minor damage occurred, when apparently several witnesses reported that their teacups and chinaware broke. They also said that residents along Quinnipiac Avenue in New Haven felt tremors. The shocks were supposedly felt even in the state capital of Hartford.

James McCaffrey of the Western Observatory, which has been studying east coast earthquakes for five years, said that this quake's strength was unusual because most of the tremors in this region are so slight that normally they are only recorded on seismographs, but aren't felt by people.

Another quake had occurred in Maine on September 8, and I even spoke with a newsstand cashier who said he felt the ground shake during an earlier episode. Scientist Vladimir Vudler has noted that earthquakes are rare in England, and that the last ones which measured 5.0 or more all took place over 200 years ago.

The big question is why now, why today in our life time? Even scientists can't explain this mystery. One can only wonder as to the reason they occurred rather frequently in the early centuries of our nation and then resumed rather abruptly today after a long hiatus of relative quiet. It seems that even the peaceful countryside of New England hides its share of enigmas.

A POTENTIAL DANGER

While Jon Singer points out that none of these recent quakes on the east coast caused any great damage, there is a potential danger that is very real which many scientists refuse to acknowledge.

In 1976 an earthquake ran through the area near Indian Point, New York where a nuclear power plant is located. Residents who have their homes nearby were realistically concerned that the power plant might possibly develop leaks due to the tremors, and might as a result send nuclear waste -- highly radioactive waste -- billowing into the air. Nothing of the sort happened this time, but there's no telling when an accident such as this might happen. In particular, many residents of California are shaking in their boots day and night because reactors in their state have been constructed along the famed fault lines there, the worst in this country anywhere.

If several massive quakes were to happen on the same day in different parts of the world society would be at its wits end. Communications would be cut off to a large extent. Transportation would come to a standstill as it would be unsafe to travel. Bridges might collapse. Major highways could buckle. Train tracks may end up twisted into distorted shapes, and large crevices could make landing at airports highly dangerous. Without high speed transportation medical supplies could not reach their destinations, and food supplies would quickly be used up as meat, vegetables and fruits would never make it from the farm into our cities.

Nuclear power plants are a potential danger as when earthquakes strike they could be damaged and send radioactive particles into the air.

As you can see, earthquakes are no laughing matter. Millions of people have been killed in various parts of the world because they were not prepared and didn't know what course of action to take when the ground began to give out from under their feet. Much publicity has been given to the fact that California may eventually fall into the sea. Even skeptical scientists who refuse to speak of a possible doomsday, admit that the West Coast is due for a big shake. They say that this "Monster Quake" could happen at any time. Many residents of California actually have earthquake insurance and a number of people have already collected on their policies. New buildings are supposedly earthquake proof, but a big enough tremble will cause just about any structure, no matter how stable, to "give way."

THE SIDE EFFECTS SPELL DISASTER

If all the above comes to pass, people will be without homes and without food. Our drinking water will become contaminated and in all likelihood -- without the availability of medicine -- great plagues could sweep over our cities. In poorer countries (as below) it will be just about impossible for food supplies to reach out-of-the-way villages and cannibalism -- flesh eating! -- may become quite common as rice and other food staples become non-existent. Hundreds of thousands from all races and religions could perish in a matter of 48 hours and we will remain powerless to do anything to counter balance this situation as each one of us will have to fight for survival.

It becomes apparent that if the psychics, religious leaders and scientists are all correct, we will have to look elsewhere for help. No earthly power can come to our aid, but many agree assistance could be forthcoming from a "higher" source.

CHAPTER FIVE: THE EVACUATION

If we should find ourselves caught up in a state of utter chaos, and there is apparently no means of escaping the disastrous situation the planet as a whole is gripped by, should we give up total hope of salvation?

The answer to this question is a definite "No!"

Those students of the Bible who take this great book literally, all know that in the Last Days, Jesus Christ will descend from Heaven, extend his hands and those who have been righteous all their lives will be saved as the world is about to go to pieces. Just about every religious sect seems to feel that they are the "chosen ones," and that when the day of atonement arrives they will be ushered up into a cloud and spirited away to a safe home far away from our trouble plagued Earth. Every group thinks they are "special" and that their adherents have been hand picked by the Lord for some special mission that will get them an honored seat in Heaven. This belief is as old as religion itself and survives today in most Christian doctrines. Evangelists the world over pound the pulpit with sermons of fire and brimstone warning that the wicked are doomed. They all seem to believe that we are living in the End Times, or a period of Great Tribulation. And, indeed, a reading of the Book of Revelations does give indication that "troubled waters" will soon surround us on all sides. Revelations speaks openly of a world caught on fire (nuclear war?) and terrible battles which will involve millions of soldiers. Supposedly the battle of Armageddon will result in the demise of one fourth of the world's population.

Yet, despite references to "rivers of blood" and great tribulations to come, throughout the Bible we are informed that "the elect," "the chosen," -- the "righteous"--will be removed in the last few minutes before life as we have come to recognize it, vanishes from the face of the earth. Interestingly enough this same belief exists in other religions besides Christianity. The North American Indian tribe, the Hopis, have long believed in a similar disaster of a magnitude that hasn't shook our planet in thousands of years. Say the Hopi prophecies:

Listen, listen, White Man, Brother,
For the Day is close upon us.
Will the Great Massau'u return,
Or will there come the Terrible One?

But if the Sacred Land is taken,
Then comes the changing of the Seasons,
Earth will quake, and from the West Wind,
There will come the Terrible One.

They shall make a little ball that will fall to the earth, and the earth will be devastated. . . a gourd of molten ashes falls from out of heaven.

So this day is close upon us,
When our Earth will shake and tremble
And the Old World, soon forgotten,
So our land will be no more.

According to these same Hopi prophecies those "whose hearts are at peace" will be lead to safety and find refuge in a land they call Oraibi which some believe to be inside the earth.

Occult tradition holds to pretty much the same belief pattern. Over eighty years ago a massive book was transcribed by a young Californian. "A Dweller on Two Planets" was given through automatic writing from an entity known as Phyllos who supposedly once existed on this planet in the days of Atlantis in an earlier incarnation and is now in the spirit world. Phyllos' dire message is quite hair raising to say the least, and tells of a scorching of the earth:

"Unto the end of full obedience and the coming into harmony with Divine Law shall the lash be applied; words may not portray the scenes (of the great holocaust). This is the message of the End of the Age. The day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come nigh. Behold the day. . .that burneth as an oven."

Phyllos reminds us that we have wandered from the Way, "cast out love and placed violence, lust and greed and all the riotous animalism in us in command of our lives." It would seem that this entity is in command of a considerable amount of knowledge regarding the End Times. He has accurately predicted what the Last Days will be like and has indicated that a nuclear explosion may do us in. His reference to "the day that burneth as an oven" is absolutely uncanny when you consider that these words were written down almost a century ago, long before any A bomb had been exploded.

What makes the remarks of Phyllos even more uncanny is the fact that this material was written down in the state of California, and it is here that many psychics and scientists believe these global changes will first begin. Even more bizarre are the references made to the earth-burning, as it is also in California where forest fires have raged out of control for weeks on end. Millions of dollars in property damage have been recorded, some of the homes belonging to famous show business personalities, who find themselves just as vulnerable to

Mother Nature's whims as anyone else of a lesser stature would be. Because of changes in the climate it is possible that wooded areas would remain so dry that almost anything could set this tinder box off like it were a match stick. Earthquakes could trigger off the explosion of gas mains and city after city could go up in smoke in a matter of no time. Look for such massive blazes in the Last Days. Its been predicted in the Bible as well as by psychics and the UFO channels we will be quoting throughout the remainder of this book

MASSIVE UFO LANDINGS PREDICTED

It has been my chosen task to get to the bottom of the End Times mystery, and actually try and find out how the Last Days will arrive, and who -- if, indeed, anyone -- will be saved. The Bible talks of "signs and wonders" in the heavens, and I've little doubt but that the appearance of UFOs in our skies as something to do with what is referred to often in the New Testament. But what of the other "road signs" that supposedly will be offered as clues that not very much time is left for us to get our affairs in order? Just what type of advance warning will we be given, and most important of all, who among us now living on this planet, will be saved from certain death when the natural and man-made terrors start to take place on a regular basis?

The questions are many, and in order to get some answers I have traveled the highways and back roads of America speaking with those individuals who seem highly attuned to these changing times in which we now find ourselves. It became quite clear that there is an understanding among many mystics and sensitives that massive UFO landings will take place and will take up a select few just in the nick of time. This same belief is world wide and comes from many groups and individuals who claim they are receiving regular messages from highly evolved beings who reside elsewhere than our planet.

Robert Short is the curly-haired leader of an organization known as the Solar Space Foundation, located in Joshua Tree, California. Since the early 1950's, Short has been conditioned to receive information while in an altered state of consciousness. During the period when he is in a trance-like state, Short is able to act as a Channel for extraterrestrials who give hope and encouragement despite our troubled state of affairs on Earth.

According to Short, his channeling endeavors started in the early 1950's and took the form of automatic writing, but shortly thereafter the alien intelligences began to communicate with him in a much more direct way -- through his voice box. "One of the things I have been told," insists Short, "is that we will some day see a mass UFO landing take place.

"As far as I can tell, there is going to be one major landing, followed by more landings, and not just our government will know about this. Many earth people of all occupations will be involved. The landing will take place in the Southwest -- New Mexico, Texas or Arizona. The ship will come down in a large flat area and the craft will be anywhere from 70 to 100 feet in diameter. It will hold a mixed crew of men and women, representatives of their civilizations in space.

"The landing," Short continues, "will take place in such a fashion that they will for the first time tell the exact reasons behind their coming to our world at this time. They are coming due to extreme shifts which will start to take place in the earth's crust, causing devastating earthquakes and total disaster worldwide. In order to inform everyone of these changes they may use radio, telephones and TV to broadcast an important message over the airwaves."

It is interesting to note at this point that almost all the UFO contactees and Channels I have talked with maintain that the aliens will eventually broadcast over our airwaves in order to tell the world what is about to transpire all over the earth, and that their visits are peaceful and only meant to help us through this difficult period of time.

During the course of our conversation, Robert Short revealed that the aliens will definitely take people on board with one qualification -- "They will ask that those selected avail themselves of a physical examination. A select number will be evacuated and will not be seen until after the catastrophes are over. In addition to the landing in the Southwest, other landing sites will be chosen away from the troubled fault lines. The American Indians and other knowledgeable individuals will assist in the evacuation.

"There will be a certain amount of panic," Short admits, "but because of the situation developing on earth, people will be looking for any influence that can aide them in the hours of strife ahead.

TAKEN TO A SAFE PLACE

Until they recently met, Jane Allyson did not know of Robert Short nor of his predictions concerning a mass evacuation. Neither was she aware of his vision of worldwide disaster. Yet their findings are, in many ways, similar.

"I have been a practicing psychic for several years, but have only recently gotten into space channeling," she explains. Jane had a very moving UFO experience in lower Manhattan and shortly thereafter she started to receive some rather remarkable communications which include End Time prophecies. "I've been told that there will be a landing in a large flat area of either Arizona or New Mexico," Jane says. "I have no idea of the actual number of craft that will land, but those that do touch down will be used to evacuate people into space when the earthquakes and other natural disturbances become too much to handle." In October, 1978 Jane received through automatic writing that a communications network is now being set up to assist in an evacuation. "I've also experienced a series of dreams in which I was told that at one point our sky is going to be filled up with spaceships. I was further shown that there will be much turmoil and confusion and there will be buildings collapsing. A psychic saw me climbing into a spaceship that will hold up to 300 people, and I have felt that when there is an evacuation, I will be among those to be taken safely off this planet."

Jane Allyson says there will be a mass evacuation of the planet just before great disasters plague us.

CHAPTER SIX: THE ASHTAR COMMAND

His words have been received by many the world over. And while no one has ever seen him in a physical sense, few can deny that he speaks with a power and a majesty that heralds great wisdom and knowledge that could only have been obtained through centuries of deep study and enlightenment. There are those who steadfastly maintain that Ashtar is about the wisest space being assigned to our solar system, a dedicated and highly advanced soul who has reincarnated many times to the point where he can now truly be considered a Master in the same category as Jesus, Buddha and other avatars. In short he is the Messenger of the New Age, assigned to the task of bringing Earth safely through the troubled times that will most certainly cross our path in the next few years.

One earthly channel who wishes to identify himself only by the initials E.P.H. has received many messages from Ashtar through automatic writing, as well as while in an altered state of consciousness. This channel makes the point that throughout both psychic phenomena and the Bible, "there are orders of beings, called by various names, who in times of great need, especially, come to earth to offer their assistance to men. Why shouldn't they be able to impress thoughts and ideas on receptive individuals," E.P.H. justly wants to know. "After all," the channel reminds us, "down through the ages there have been mystics who claimed they have heard the voice of God or of angels. Today, there are those who claim to hear the voice of spacemen. And if flying saucers are real, why shouldn't they be manned by intelligent beings who can send their thought-waves to those who are receptive?" It would appear that Ashtar has been doing exactly what E.P.H. suggests, and the scope of his influence is expanding as more and more sensitive individuals are picking up on his words of encouragement.

CITY OF THE SUN

Among those who have frequently channeled Ashtar is Thelma B. Terrell who currently resides at the City of the Sun Foundation, a New Age community in Columbus, New Mexico. Thelma says her calling as a spiritual messenger began in the early seventies, with her channeling work starting in 1979, when she was commissioned by the Ashtar Command to use the spiritual name of "Tuella". Tuella has recently published "World Messages For The Coming Decade," a cosmic symposium of some 27 speakers, including nine noted Space Commanders and representatives of the Saturnian Council.

In recent transmissions which she has received via mental telepathy from the Ashtar Command, this highly evolved intelligence says that news of disasters will soon reach a magnitude that the news media will be at a loss to report them all. "Television reports will fill the day in continuing attempts to cover these events, so recurrent will be the disasters, so widespread the locations. These have been referred to as changes that must come. The restlessness of the inner earth which awakens the sleeping volcanoes to belch forth their living fire, is the same momentum which manifests elsewhere as tremors or earthquakes of small or large magnitude. Tidal waves and intense weather abnormalities; shifting plates of land beneath the oceans and the quivering of the mountains, could take place in concerted action, so that humanity would have nowhere to run, no where to turn and no sense of direction or idea of what they must do to save themselves. Panic could grip the hearts of people resulting in calls upon God for deliverance. It is in hours such as these THAT YOUR SKIES WILL FILL WITH THE SHIPS OF YOUR BROTHERS FROM OTHER REALMS."

One of the things that the Ashtar Command has requested at this point in time is that they be allowed to come forward and be permitted to take a place in the international body as well as in our own Congress.

"We extend to your President, the House of Representatives, the men of the Senate and all of the national leaders, our hand of friendship and cooperation. In the name of the salvation of the life of Humanity, we ask that you would receive our words and welcome us to speak in your assemblies. We have those who can walk among you and never be noticed for all their similarity to your own appearance. They can suddenly appear behind your rostrum and speak to the members of your Congress. We would prefer to be invited to do this. If we are not invited to do this we may have to arrange our own opportunity, to speak to these gentlemen, in the early part of this decade. For there is too much at stake on an interplanetary basis to stand by without an effort to probe the motivations behind present world disorder. We send this message as an advancing envoy and ask the world leaders and the governments of all the world to make a place for our spokesmen upon your agendas."

Ashtar's closing words on this matter is quite clear:

"IF THE SPACE IS MADE THE SPOKESMAN WILL APPEAR!"

Could it be that shortly our world leaders will have to start listening to these highly evolved beings, regardless of whether they want to or not?

ASHTAR'S END TIME NOTES

Needless to say, it is not within the scope of this present publication to document all the many messages that have been channeled from Ashtar and other members of the various federations of planets that are said to exist throughout the vast universe. For what could we offer in the way of proof that these discourses are not the work of over-active imaginations? No scientific method is presently available to verify that which must for the present still be referred to as the supernatural or paranormal. We can only take each message or group of messages and test them out to our own satisfaction. When dealing with anything in the realm of the psychic it is always necessary to use a little of your own sensitivity to separate the wheat from the chaff.

Carol Rodriguez is a talented artist from Jackson Heights, New York, who has for quite a number of years remained actively interested in the subject of UFOs and in the possibility that human-like space beings are monitoring our activities down here on earth. Her mind has remained open to new ideas and thoughts which others might reject out of hand simply because they might at first seem far fetched. Carol knows that anything is possible as she has experienced any number of psychic related manifestations in her life which have enabled her to draw the conclusion that other entities co-exist along with mankind in the same solar system in which we reside.

Recently, Carol has been present when a dedicated young man was seen fit to serve as a "go between" for the Ashtar Command. This individual refuses to allow his identity to be made public since he believes it would hamper his ongoing work. "He doesn't find it necessary to go before the public," Carol explains, "as he feels the notoriety would only take away from the importance of the message and would place him in the spotlight instead of the actual source for this information, which must now be gotten out to the public at all cost."

In addition to being the one who has had the privilege of asking questions of Ashtar, Carol has also been of tremendous help in transcribing the tapes of the dozen or more communications that have to date been beamed through this nameless channel.

And while the messages from Ashtar have covered a wide variety of topics, Ashtar seems most anxious to get his specific thoughts across on the very subject we are so fascinated by, mainly the End Times.

The following notes have been taken directly from the cassette tapes hereby known as the Ashtar End Time Notes. Some editing for clarity sake has been done, but the essence remains true to the actual discourses. We have decided to present the material in a series of questions, followed by, in most instances, a most relevant answer. And while there are still missing pieces of the puzzle that we will fill in later on, these messages, I feel, go a long way in adding to our knowledge of the Last Days.

WHEN WILL YOU LAND AND EVACUATE THE EARTH?

The time is not so far away. When that time does arrive, you and the other chosen ones will be taken up to a safe place in outer space. Perhaps this will be on some other planet, or a large mothership. From there you can watch your planet being destroyed. Should the end come through an explosion, a nuclear war (which we will do our best to prevent), we will monitor the radiation from space, and do the best we can to sweep your atmosphere clean so that those that have been chosen, and who have been taken up, can eventually be brought back to earth later on.

It is impossible to predict an exact date, however, things are leading up to a point where such an event cannot be postponed much longer. Your planet's vibrations are very, very, negative. There are many forces on your planet that are seeking to control the destiny of millions and millions of people.

Things are bad. Things are disastrous. It could happen at any time. It could happen tomorrow. It could happen a week from now. It could happen a year from now, or five years from now. It is impossible to predict the exact date, but there are some things that will happen, some things that you can watch for and mark on your calender.

WHAT ARE SOME OF THESE SIGNS YOU SPEAK OF?

There will be a country in the Middle East that will be overtaken by the country you call the Soviet Union. When this happens the time will not be far off. When this happens the time will be close at hand. Such is happening now in Afganistan, but it will spread.

The power of the Soviet Union is very mighty. They are very powerful. They have a great military machine. Your United States feels that it is the will of the people that we try to liberate these people living under the Soviet Union and the Communist Manifesto. While it is certainly brave and courageous that your government feels this way, it is also leading you down the path to a nuclear holocaust.

The two forces are opposing. They are like magnets, magnets that repel each other, and this can only lead to a catastrophe. It is too bad that this has to happen. We would like to see it avoided, but it will be difficult to do so. You have built your military up to the point where both nations could, very easily, destroy themselves through a nuclear holocaust. There is no backing out now, it seems. Both countries are very influential in the world. The next war could possibly be a very disastrous one. Millions of people will be killed, millions of people will be slaughtered but some -- the lucky ones -- will be saved.

We will come. We will land. We will make ourselves known. We will take on board those who are worthy, those who are aware of our presence, those who are involved in the New Age.

IF THERE WERE A NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST, WOULDN'T THIS CAUSE PROBLEMS IN OUTER SPACE? WOULDN'T THE ENTIRE SOLAR SYSTEM BE AFFECTED?

Yes, this is true. You see, if there were a nuclear holocaust on your planet, it would cause a vibration like a chain reaction that would vibrate through the entire solar system and would cause negative effects. It might cause, not only a disturbance in your polar alignment, but it could also cause this to happen on several other planets. It is possible indeed and so we have to watch you with keen interest. Not only do we not want you to destroy yourselves, but we don't want to see any of our other brothers throughout the solar system destroyed either.

CAN'T YOU DO SOMETHING TO STOP THESE THINGS FROM HAPPENING?

We are doing what we can at this time. There are people amongst you who are from the various planets in the solar system and they are trying to get to your leaders, trying to get them to see the situation they are getting into. But it is really impossible to change the minds of individuals. Though we can alert them to the facts, though we can try to shine the light of universal love on them, it is impossible if their will is not strong enough to want to change. For you see there is not just one leader on your planet. Your own President for example, he does not have the power. The power is given to many. It is given to the scientist. It is given to the military. This is true not only in the United States, but also in other countries. Not one person holds the key to peace. If this were the case, we could probably come down and take them away and all would be well. It is true that some are willing to listen. Many others refuse to as it is their own greed that they are looking out for, not the welfare of their own people, or the welfare of space people throughout this solar system.

CAN YOU TELL US MORE ABOUT THE HOLOCAUST?

There will be a natural holocaust that will take place, caused, not only by the nuclear explosions of war, but because your own weather, your own atmosphere, is so rapidly changing. You have already seen this with the repeated eruptions of the volcano you call Mount St. Helens in Washington state, but there will be others that will be taking place around the world. There will be an increase in earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, and these will also cause many related disasters and loss of life. These are all signs the time is near, that times are changing, that your whole planet is going through a change.

We would like to see these things not happen as they would be bad for all of us. But it is impossible to change the course of history. We could look, we could observe, we could do what we can, but we can not change the facts.

You have created your own life, your own civilization, and it is impossible for us to come down and actually interfere. This would be against the universal laws. We might even be able to give you advice, but if you do not listen it is not up to us to prevent these things. This is a natural occurrence, something you have brought upon yourselves, and you will have to pay the karmic consequences.

There will be more signs in the heavens. Mankind will look to the stars for their salvation. All this will happen shortly. Within the next few years there will be many, many changes taking place on your planet. We are watching from far above, keeping tabs on your activities. We are hoping, we are praying, that these events do not transpire.

COULD ANY OF THIS STILL BE AVERTED? IS THERE A PRAYER FOR MANKIND?

Yes, there is a chance this can all be averted, but with each passing day, that chance gets less and less. If mankind could change the way it lives, if mankind were to put down its arms, then it could be averted. However, there is no sign that this will happen.

Some day someone will take matters into their own hands and will push the button, the button that will end civilization as you have come to recognize it.

Look to the sky. Tell those that you know who believe, to look up, that we are coming in greater numbers. We will do what we can. Tell those who believe, tell those who are righteous, that we are here, that we are watching over them, that we are praying for their safety.

There will be many signs to look for. The signs will differ depending upon what part of the earth you live on. When the earthquakes and volcanic eruptions start en masse, your sun and your moon will look different than they do now. There will be strange atmospheric conditions -- a pink haze in the sky. This pink haze will cover everything so that when you see the moon, and when you see the sun, they will no longer appear the same to you. Also, the course of mighty rivers will be altered. One in South America will make headlines within the next few months. There will be a considerable number of earthquakes, some of which will even occur in your eastern United States. Though they have occurred before, this is the first time that such tremors of a very strong magnitude will be recorded.

In the End Times there will be great floods which will destroy homes and end many lives.

IS NEW YORK GOING TO BE DESTROYED?

New York has already destroyed itself. As for a total physical destruction, this may occur, but there is a strong possibility that it will not, for it would take a very strong physical reaction to sink or tilt the island of Manhattan. This may occur before the end as we know it, but by that time, most of the people will already be evacuated who will be taken off the planet.

ARE THERE AREAS ON OUR PLANET WHICH WILL BE SAFE TO LIVE IN FOR AT LEAST A LITTLE WHILE?

There will be areas which you can go to that will be safe. Arizona is one such place that is frequently mentioned, and it is a good place. Also Wyoming, and Oklahoma, and perhaps the Dakotas.

You will know that the time has arrived to leave where you are when there is an increased number of UFOs seen in the sky. During the period just before the End Times, UFOs will be coming down here from many sources to watch these things, and at some point to lift off those people who accept the existence of the space people and those whose deeds are such that it makes it essential that they be taken along. These are the ones that we would have repopulate the earth at some future date. Also to be taken, are those that have particular skills or abilities and have no criminal record.

HOW MANY PEOPLE WILL BE TAKEN FROM THE EARTH?

Each group coming down here will be taking people off. Our own ships will be responsible for upwards of 20,000. We would estimate that altogether perhaps 140,000 to 170,000 people will be lifted up and taken off the planet.

THIS IS NOT VERY MANY CONSIDERING THE POPULATION OF THE WORLD

It is certainly true that this is not a great figure, but if the people on earth lived more according to the universal laws, the great catastrophes and holocaust would not take place. So why should we remove them, only to have the same thing start all over again? Also, the question arises if we were to take more than this, what would we do with these people? We would be responsible for their safety, for housing them, feeding them, and taking care of their various needs while they are away from the planet. It would be anywhere from five years to several decades before the earth is safe to be repopulated again. After the great war, if one should occur, we will send ships down that will clear the air of any radioactivity. The volcanic eruptions will probably simmer down in awhile. The earthquakes will also become less frequent because there will be a shifting, probably of the entire earth's axis. So the whole land mass will be reshaped entirely. There will be very few areas that will be able to stand the force of the holocaust. These few safe areas that we mentioned will only be safe in the beginning, as when the earth tilts on its axis, if that is what is to happen, whole land masses will be completely altered. But, it is from these areas that a good many of the people that will be picked up will be lifted off the earth.

WHERE WILL THESE PEOPLE BE TAKEN TO?

There will be several large cities in space, some of which your scientists have already observed. These ships which can house many, many thousands of people will be put in orbit around the sun as if they were planets themselves. Then at the time the earth has been made stable again, the people will be brought back. These planets orbiting around the sun will be big enough so that people can go on living quite comfortably. Food will be grown there. There will be recreation and entertainment areas. There will be schools. There will be hospitals. Life will go on.

If you watch the news you can see that the earth is like a festering wound, a wound that keeps getting larger and larger. There is more hatred among mankind then-ever before. The bomb is about ready to explode. But do not fear, be happy, be content, be glad that you are living in such an important era. And remember, watch the skies for we are here and we are watching over you. We send our love, we send our well wishes, we send our strength and our power to you and those who are deserving.

IF OUR LEADERS WERE TO ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR EXISTENCE COULD YOU IN ANY WAY BE ABLE TO ASSIST US?

Your planet would jump many years ahead in technology if your scientists and world leaders would simply acknowledge our presence. We have many things we would like to share with you that we could teach you, that you could learn from.

At this very moment, your energy, the energy that you have within the bowels of the earth, is depreciating. Very, very soon there will not be enough power for your cities to provide you with the energy you need for heat, for refrigeration.

The economics are very, very bad, not only in your own country, but in other countries as well. There are many unstable conditions which we could help improve.

And while these are troubled times, these are also good times for those who will open their minds, for those who would cast their eyes skyward, for those who look for our gleaming craft. For we come with knowledge, with love and peace in our hearts. It is very important that your world unite, for separated as it is now, it will eventually destroy itself. Unity is important.

One of the reasons that we are making select contacts at this time is to tell you that your planet cannot stand another world war. In a world war there would be no winner, every side would be the loser.

YOU MEAN NO ONE WOULD SURVIVE THE END TIMES HERE ON EARTH?

More than likely there will always be people on the earth. These catastrophies will take the lives of millions, but there will always be places for people to hide. In fact, there are now people who are living underground, people who are actually living inside your own planet, who once lived on the surface many eons ago. But they too nearly destroyed themselves. Some of them built rocketships to go into outer space, while others built cities underground.

We see the earth as a giant pressure cooker about ready to blow its top. Yet our message is getting through. More and more, your people are realizing the true nature of our craft. They realize that there are space brothers out there. For those who are concerned with all this, it is important that they find out what is going on. More and more information will be revealed in the next several years as the End Time approaches.

UFOs are very important. We ask that you get the word out. We ask that you tell as many people as possible about the existence of flying saucers, for they are very important for your state of development.

CHAPTER SEVEN: A BLENDING OF COSMIC SOULS

In this chapter I hope to set forth some clues as to who the "Chosen Ones" among us actually are. We have been told over and over again that purity of thought is essential, as is honesty of heart. But if only a little over a hundred thousand individuals are to be "lifted up" on what basis will they be selected by the Space Brothers who are said to be watching over us? Let's see if we can't make some sense out of this.

Whenever I've asked the question, "Is there any particular reason why you feel you have been chosen for repeated contacts with alien beings?" I usually am given a similar response. Most UFO contactees can talk for hours about the philosophy of the outer space intelligence they communicate with, but they appear unusually naive as to why they should be the ones to carry forth this message to the public. Can it be, I've often wondered, that the UFOonauts simply pick people at random to establish prolonged contact with? Is being in the right place at the right time, all there is to this selection? I've always found this idea hard to believe.

"They told me they were coming back to contact their own," Barbara Hudson looked me directly in the eye and simply shrugged her shoulders. The attractive black woman had answered my question to the best of her ability, it was just that she didn't really know what the space people that she's been in touch with since she was a young girl, were talking about. "How can I be one of them?" she asks in total candor. "After all, I was born right here in the United States."

On many occasions contactees have told me pretty much the same thing not realizing what it is they are actually professing. Yet, when we take their statement and combine it with other fascinating data, the space people's coming back to contact their own starts to make amazing sense.

THE STAR PEOPLE

About eight years ago, as he traveled around the country while lecturing, well-known parapsychologist Brad Steiger, noticed that many men and women he met, actually claimed either to have strange memories of having come to this planet from "somewhere else," or to have experienced an interaction with paranormal entities since their earliest childhood. Steiger came to call these individuals "Star People" and noticed that they had many similar physical attributes and physiological anomalies which Brad Steiger has authored 60 books, both hardcover and paperback, covering such topics as UFOs, prophecy, astral projection, life after death, and ESP. He has also written scores of magazine articles, and at one time had a daily newspaper column syndicated here and abroad. A warm and friendly person, Brad has received his share of rewards for his outstanding contributions to a still-developing field. In October, 1974, he was awarded the coveted "Genie" as Best Metaphysical Writer of the Year. He is also one of the top speakers at conventions, seminars and on college campuses. Brad's first novel titled "The Hypnotist" (a spellbinding story of reincarnation and evil) has just been published by Dell.

obviously placed them apart from the rest of society.

Thus far, the pattern profile of the "Star People" contains the following elements:

UNUSUAL BLOOD TYPE.

LOWER BODY TEMPERATURE.

WAS AN UNEXPECTED CHILD

EXTRA VERTEBRAE AND LOWER BACK PROBLEMS.

THRIVE ON LITTLE SLEEP.

APPEAR HYPERSENSITIVE TO ELECTRICITY, ELECTROMAGNETIC
FORCE FIELDS.

UNUSUALLY SHARP HEARING AND EYES VERY SENSITIVE TO LIGHT.

FELT THEIR MOTHER AND FATHER WERE NOT THEIR REAL PARENTS.

COMPLAIN OF FEELING GREAT URGENCY, A SHORT TIME TO COMPLETE GOALS.

LOW BLOOD PRESSURE.

CHRONIC SINUSITIS.

FEEL THAT THEIR TRUE ANCESTORS CAME FROM ANOTHER WORLD, ANOTHER DIMENSION, AND THEY YEARN FOR THEIR TRUE PLACE OF ORIGIN.

HAD UNSEEN COMPANIONS AS A CHILD.

NATURAL ABILITIES WITH ART, MUSIC, HEALING, OR ACTING.

EXPERIENCE A BUZZING OR A CLICKING NOISE IN THEIR EARS
PRIOR TO, OR DURING, SOME PSYCHIC EVENTS.

HAD AN UNUSUAL EXPERIENCE AROUND THE AGE OF FIVE WHICH OFTEN TOOK THE FORM OF A WHITE LIGHT AND/OR A VISITATION BY HUMAN-TYPE BEINGS WHO GAVE INFORMATION AND COMFORT.

HAVE SINCE MAINTAINED A CONTINUING SERIES OF EPISODES WITH
"ANGELS," "ELVES," "MASTERS," OR OPENLY DECLARED UFO INTELLIGENCES.

THEIR ARTWORK OR DREAMS OFTEN INVOLVE A MULTI-MOON ENVIRONMENT.

CHILDREN AND ANIMALS ARE ATTRACTED TO THEM.

THEY DO THEIR BEST WORK AT NIGHT.

As Steiger correctly points out, despite a seemingly bizarre belief that they are not from here, these "Star People" all appear normal and rational otherwise. Most of the Star People Brad met were intelligent and highly articulate and sensed that they had a particular purpose or "mission" in life, though they might not have sorted out in their own mind what made them so "special."

Based upon his research, Steiger draws the conclusion that there was once a mixing of the genes between Earth men and women and beings from other worlds. He believes that this is what so many of the world's religions are referring to when they speak of the "Sons of God" or the "Star People" seeing that the "Daughters of Men were fair," went ahead and mated with them. Brad contends that the "Giants in the Earth" which resulted from these early unions were the ancestors of the Star People of today. And while such a "Cosmic Union" probably did take place eons ago, I believe that many of those who feel like they are "Strangers in a Strange Land" actually are not totally from this planet, but are "Blends," composed of both an earthly soul and the spirit of an alien entity.

Once you have a full understanding of this comment, Barbara Hudson's statement which she attributes to her space contacts, "We are coming back to contact our own, starts to make remarkable sense. Furthermore, we begin to see just who it is among us who will be lifted off this planet during the closing out of this old, dying, period of materialism on earth.

A MODERN-DAY FEMALE MOSES

Back before that warm August night in 1974, Lydia Stalnaker was a very successful businesswoman who ran a modeling agency and spent most of her free time raising two daughters, Penny and Patty.

As Lydia crossed a rather remote section of highway between Jacksonville and Callahan, Florida, her life was destined to change drastically. Suddenly, from out of nowhere, a bright, flashing white light came into view just above the tree tops. "Upon driving nearer to the strange flashing light, I began to shake as if chilled and began to feel a tingle in my left arm. I began breathing hard as if something were closing in on me. It was a suffocating feeling as if something were taking control of me. Suddenly, my mind went blank and for how long I remained apparently unconscious, I do not know, but it seemed only a short period of time before I was conscious again. When I awoke, I noticed that I was driving along a totally different road than I had been on before sighting the strange object above the trees."

Three hours of Lydia's life disappeared that evening and were not remembered until May 1975 when Lydia underwent retrogressive hypnosis. Since that night in August, Lydia says she suffered from intense headaches and would cry and feel panic-stricken for no reason at all. "I thought I had gone crazy and could not understand what was happening to me."

Under hypnosis it came out that during the missing hours, Lydia had been taken aboard a space craft and placed on a table-like machine opposite another woman. "As I was being strapped into this table-like machine by unknown persons, I was told that they were going to try to place this other woman inside my body and that I would be like them and she would be like me. I was told that this process would not hurt badly. My head was then placed inside something and the table began to revolve. It turned faster and faster until I eventually passed out. When I awoke, I felt something warm coming through the top of my head and traveling through my entire body. The machine was stopped and the aliens seemed to be very happy about something. I heard them say that it had worked and they helped me off the table. One of the aliens placed a robe around my shoulders and said I was now one of them. He walked me to the door of the ship and said they would be in contact with me again."

Since the night this all happened, Lydia has developed telepathic powers to the point where she can read other people's thoughts. Beyond this heightened extrasensory perception, Lydia has also gone into the area of psychic healing with many testimonials, swearing that her abilities to cure various ailments are authentic.

Placed under hypnosis on subsequent occasions by Professor James Harder of UCLA, Lydia revealed that the alien woman who had been opposite her on the table-like machine was now occupying her body. Eventually, this alien personality was able to speak through Lydia's vocal cords and identified herself as Antron. Trying his best to mend what he must have thought was a split personality, Dr. Harder told the entity that it is impossible for more than one spirit to occupy the same body. To this Lydia -- or Antron should we say -- remarked: "We are as one. We both live in the same house." The spacewoman went on to say that Lydia had approved of this merging of souls.

Little by little Lydia's alien companion began to reveal bits and pieces pertaining to her own background. "My place is not of this solar system," Antron reflects, "but of another solar system called a star galaxy. All people of different origins know God. They have been taught that God is, as you would say, a missionary sent here. My planet is green from the outside, where earth is blue. We have better atmospheric layer conditions. We do not get the radiation from outside as earth does. Therefore, we do not age as rapidly."

Antron's sharing of Lydia's human body was not done merely as a casual whim, but for a very specific reason. "The earth is getting ready for another cataclysmic event," Antron warns. "We want to take the good people with us to recolonize elsewhere."

Because of what Antron has said, Lydia Stalnaker has come to think of herself as sort of a modern-day female Moses. "I'm here to lead the righteous to a new world in space," she insists. "They continue to refer to the time of great geographical changes in the structure of the earth similar to the Biblical prophecies. They tell of the time soon to come, when earth changes will occur. If they have been studying earth changes for a number of centuries, as they claim, perhaps we should listen to their advice. Perhaps we should accept their being here and accept their help."

WALK-INS

If you have any type of sensitivity at all, Lydia's story must send chills up and down your spine. I've heard Antron speak in person through her, and I can tell you this spacewoman is definitely not part of a split personality, but is a real entity unto itself.

Actually, the blending of a strange spirit with another human being is not that unusual when you review literature in the field of psychic phenomenon. Writer Ruth Montgomery calls these beings "Walk-Ins" and describes how they have on many occasions actually shared the same body with otherwise normal individuals.

What places these "Walk-Ins" apart from instances of possession by evil spirits or demons is the fact that complete cooperation must be offered by the original spirit that occupies the human form.

This "agreement" can apparently take place prior to birth, during a so-called "death bed" experience when the individual is out of his body, or during periods when he is asleep or unconscious. Now how's this for coincidence? Remember Barbara Hudson who we referred to earlier? Well, it seems that at the age of five or six she was playing in her parents backyard, when for no apparent reason she keeled over and was pronounced dead by the family doctor. Barbara remained "dead" for a brief while, but remarkably she eventually sat up and had absolutely no recollection of what had happened. Perhaps, it was during this period of time that a "deal" was struck up and an alien spirit blended with hers. When the space people she is in touch with say the reason they are communicating with her is because, "They are coming back to contact their own," they are telling the absolute truth even if they don't bother to explain the meaning of their words.

Another visitor to our planet, an entity called Ishcomar explains this "blending" process more completely. "By mutual agreement between a planetary dweller and an inhabitant of our craft, the knowledge and memory of one of us may be blended with one of your inhabitants without the loss of the receivers identity. The one from our group only adds to the knowledge of the planetary dweller and the abandoned body (of the alien) is disasemenated. This blending cannot take place without the agreement of the individual and necessarily the planetary dweller must agree and desire this blending. We seek therefore not to take but to give."

It seems that living on our world at this time is an army of "helpers" who will be trying their best to assist us and guide us through this shakey and tramatic period. Some of them may not even know who they are yet, but they will SOON learn!

CURED OF AILMENTS

What a wonderful sight it will be to see gigantic space ships picking up people from all over the world. According to Robert Short of the Solar Space Foundation, many of those who are "lifted up" will be cured of sickness and ailments of mind and body. "This will be as a result of rebalance, and the grace given by the Creative Source of Ageless Life." According to many sources, when the earth is ready to be repopulated once again our world will exist in a higher vibrational level and only those who are attuned properly will be able to survive here.

Jane Allyson, the New York-based channel who will eventually relocate in Arizona, says that psychically she has received the message that "As consciousness is raised on earth this consciousness raising appears to the space people as a light-form and this specific light-form will lead them to us when the time comes." Doesn't this sound as if Jane is making reference to the human aura that supposedly surrounds every living thing? Perhaps they will know which of us to select by reading our aura as this is a good indication of our emotional state of mind as well as our physical and spiritual being. Jane adds that the space people will be working with our spirit guides to help us when the time of evacuation finally arrives. Summing up what she has been told, Ms. Allyson remarks. "The only protection we will have will be our consciousness. There will be no mind control on their part, only total understanding. There is no chance of anything going wrong, and everyone will be working for the cause of survival. Only those with raised consciousness will understand and survive."

As I understand it, after the holocaust is over and those who have been taken away and want to come back, return to the earth, our world will be a Utopia, a sort of Heaven brought down out of the clouds. A Golden Age will develop and man will live in peace and will go on living in perfect health for centuries to come. Much of this is stated in the Bible, but in slightly different terms. Its all a matter of interpretation, and what your concept of the universe is. I don't believe there is anything unholy about these statements we have made, its just that we are viewing them through Twentieth Century eyes and with a deep mystical knowledge.

HARMONY AND PEACE

One thing we can state with absolute certainty -- no one who is a negative person will be permitted on board the evacuation ships. Thelma B. Terrell from the City of the Sun has been told by one of her space contacts, Commander Hatonn of the Space Council, that their ships are "environments of harmony and peace. There is quietness, cooperation and dignity. There is courtesy and devotional awareness within each being. This is the only attitude capable of continuance in the vibrational atmosphere present within our craft. The frequencies are so high that they would destroy any vibration of a lesser nature. It is not a matter of saying, 'This one may come, or this one must stay,' it is of frequencies and vibrations. Those who have learned to live in love, and to apply an attitude of love to all situations have thus prepared themselves for these coming days of turmoil. . . It is at this meeting point of love, that we can mingle with you and accept you into our midst and our ships for rescue."

Another of Thelma's regular contacts is a highly evolved being from the planet Arcturus which is part of a distant constellation. During a recent early morning channeling session this being revealed that ships from his world would be among those outer space vehicles to take away the survivors. Apparently, just like on a sinking boat at sea, the children will be taken first. "I reveal to you in this release that we shall call for the children first. For the children are guiltless and the children are the victims of the madness of the adult world surrounding them. We shall make a place on our ships and our places of refuge for the children, first. These souls who have dared to enter your world at such a time as this, deserve our love and care first of all. For they do not know hatred until they are taught to hate. They do not know to kill until they are taught to kill. They do not know of mass destruction until they are taught to destroy. Each living soul has it's identifying ray, it's link with it's own personal record on our great computers. Your children are not lost when they are with us. They will be rescued first, and await your coming. Many thousands of your children are special souls who have come to progress, to unfold, and participate in the dawn of a New World. "

When you think about it seriously, it would make a lot of sense to evacuate children. Depending on how serious the situation is back here on earth, older people might have to stay away too long and would be quite elderly when the time does come to return. Also, children would be ideal to populate the New Earth the space people speak of as they will be open to new ideas, and values, and will not be old enough to remember the hate that raged in the hearts, and minds of the adult population.

As you can see, Thelma Terrell's contacts have some very intriguing things to tell us, a lot more than we have space for in this present book. Those who would like to study her messages more closely may contact her directly in care of the City of the Sun, Box 356, Columbus, New Mexico 88029.

By now you should have a pretty good inkling of those who are slated to be spirited away in the last days of the End Times we are making a study of. It is necessary that we try to lift our vibrations as high as possible and show good faith. It would seem that amongst us now are those whose minds and souls are a near perfect blend of earthling and alien. These individuals -- the "Star People" -- will soon be faced with the reality of who they are (if they don't already know) and will be entrusted with the mission of getting the rest of us set to go on board those great star ships that will be hovering in the sky.

CHAPTER EIGHT: THE COUNTDOWN HAS BEGUN

There is sufficient reason to believe that we have passed the Eleventh Hour on the countdown to destruction, and that the hands of the cosmic clock are pushing Midnight. Throughout our research on the pending day of global doom we are told to look for certain "Signs," which will alert us to the fact that time is running short. As previously stated, not even the space people know the exact hour, since the future is subject to certain changes. This seems to confirm Matthew 24.29-36 for those who are interested in tying this in with Bible reference: "But of the day and hour knoweth no man, no not even the angels (space beings?) of heaven." I find it rather fascinating that much of what has been revealed to us via extraterrestrial intelligence seems to be quite similar to religious text, both Christian as well as other sects. There seems to be almost a universal understanding that something very horrifying is going to happen during the period in which we are now living.

Remember Ashtar's prediction several chapters back to the effect that there would be a strange haze in the atmosphere which would turn the moon and sun a strange color, making it difficult to tell the difference between day and night? Well, there are several references in the Bible to just such an event. Take for example Isaiah 13.9-10: "For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened...and the moon shall not cause her light to shine." Or take Amos 8.9: "And it shall come to pass in that day, sayeth the Lord, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day." Nor should we forget Joel 3.15 which says: "The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining."

To an extent, we might have already been given a sample of what could happen on a much larger, more intense scale. On several occasions in recent years pollution caused by waste being released into the atmosphere has cut visibility down to less than a foot in several large cities. The above photo was taken in the middle of the afternoon in Rockville, Maryland and serves as only a small indication of what is possible when man decides to go against Mother Nature. One day soon we could very easily have the three days of darkness spoken of in the Bible, and we will know with a strong conviction in our heart that the End Times are upon us.

MYSTERY MESSAGES

Another sure-fire sign that we are approaching the close of an age, and that extraterrestrial intervention (to whatever degree is allowed) is at hand, is said to be the taking over of our broadcasting facilities by the UFO-nauts. According to the messages channeled for the past several decades, our space friends will interfere with our normal radio and television reception, and will issue a communication directly to the people of earth. Supposedly, they will "cut in" over our regularly scheduled programs and will issue forth a proclamation that will be seen and heard in every country around the world. Thelma Terrell has recently received one such channeled message which deals with this precise subject: "Our technology is readied to superimpose our frequencies over your television and radio broadcasting systems if necessary, to reach the masses in the quickest possible manner. We can also extend our frequencies into your telephone lines for a brief message. . . We have systems similar to your public address systems, available from the smaller scout ships which operate with a volume and power unheard of in your technology. We have many ways of reaching quantities of persons simultaneously. We project into your thinking at this very date, that fear of us and our presence or our appearance, or lack of understanding of our motivation, will combine to produce such a negative field around your physical form that we would be unable to assist you." The channel then goes on to say, once again, that time is short. "We cannot promise you another decade. We cannot even promise you all of this one. Your destiny is in your hands." Pretty explicit words wouldn't you agree?"

As an experiment to prove to us that such a massive take over of our communications systems can be accomplished, the UFO-nauts have already beamed several important messages over our television stations.

The following is a complete transcript of the "Voice from Outer Space" as broadcasted on TV in the Hennington area of Southern England at 5:05 P.M. on Saturday, November 26, 1977.

"This is the voice of Glon, representative of the 'Asteron Galactic Command', speaking to you. For many years you have seen us as lights in the sky. We speak to you now in peace and wisdom as we have done to your brothers and sisters all over this, your planet.

"We come to warn you of the destiny of your race in your world so that you may communicate to your fellow beings the course you must take to avoid disaster which threatens your world and the beings of other worlds around you.

"This is the order that you may share in the great awakening as the planet passes into the New Age of Aquarius. The New Age can be a time of great evolution for your race, but only if your rulers are made aware of the evil forces that can overshadow their judgement. Be still now, and listen, for your chance may not come again for many years.

"Your scientists, governments and generals have not heeded our warnings. They have continued to experiment with the evil forces of what you call nuclear energy. Atomic bombs can destroy the Earth and the beings of your sister worlds in a moment. The wastes from atomic power systems will poison your planet for many thousands of years to come. We who have followed the path of evolution for far longer than you, have long since realized this, that atomic energy is always directed against life. It has no peaceful application. Its use and research into its use must be ceased at once, or you will all risk destruction. All weapons of evil must be removed.

"The time of conflict is now passed and the races of which you are a part may proceed to the highest planes of evolution, if you show yourselves worthy to do this. You have but a short time to learn to live together in peace and good will. Small groups all over the planet are learning this and exist to pass on the light of a new dawning, the New Age to you all. You are free to accept or reject their teachings, but only those who learn to live in peace will pass to the higher realms of spiritual evolution.

"Hear then the voice of Glon -- the voice of the 'Asteron Galactic Command' speaking to you. Be aware also that there are many false prophets and guides at present operating on your world. They will suck your energy from you, the energy you call money, and will put it to evil ends, giving you worthless gross in return. Your inner divine self will protect you from this. You must learn to be sensitive to the voice within that can tell you what is truth and what is confusion, chaos and untruth. Learn to listen to the voice of truth which is within you and you will lead yourself onto the path of evolution.

"This is our message to you, our dear friends. We have watched you growing for many years, just as you have watched our lights in the skies. You know now that we are here and that there are more beings on and around your Earth than your scientists care to admit. We are deeply concerned about you and your path towards the light and we will do all we can to help you. Have no fears, seek only to know yourself and live in harmony with the ways of your planet Earth.

"We are the 'Asteron Galactic Command'; thank you for your attention. We are now leaving the planes of your existence. May you be blessed with supreme love and truth of the cosmos."

Wouldn't you agree that this is a most inspiring communication? The authorities attempted to attack the validity of the message, stating that a vandal had taken over a deserted transmitter in a wooded area of the city and had somehow managed to broadcast the message, overriding the normal TV signal. What the spokesman for the television station neglected to mention is that there was actually more than one message, and they lasted for a considerable period of time, not the 15 or 20 seconds they tried to make everyone believe.

Lately, I have received a number of letters from subscribers to UFO REVIEW, a flying saucer newspaper which I have published for several years, who claim to be picking up strange "alien communications" on their ham radios. Many of these messages deal with end time prophecies and many of the things talked about in this book. Its hard to believe that some hoaxer has gotten ahold of some very expensive equipment and is transmitting just for the hell of it. More likely, these messages fit right into the puzzle we are trying so desperately to piece together.

HOW MANY YEARS DO WE HAVE?

The hundred thousand dollar question seems to be: Just how far along are we into the End Times? Most of those I have spoken to about this, agree that we are already well into the Last Days, and only have from three to ten years left before it is all over with. One of the big pivot points is the alignment of the planets -- the Great Conjunction -- which will take place in December, 1982. Two scientists, John Gribbin, science editor of Nature magazine, and Stephen Plagemann of NASA's Goodard Space Center believe that the lining up of the planets will cause a strain on certain fault lines and great quakes could occur. At the same time they have envisioned a series of probable side-effects, which are as follows:

THE GREAT CONJUNCTION The Alignment of the Planets Coming December 1982

A DISTURBED MAGNETIC ACTIVITY IN THE SUN, PRODUCING HUGE FIRE-STORMS,

EARTH'S ROTATION, AND THE LENGTH OF DAYS MAY CHANGE.

All the sign posts we have observed, would seem to indicate that we will be in "hot water" the moment the "Great Conjunction" of planets takes place. From there on out things can only go from bad to worse. When any of the above starts to transpire even on a small scale, my suggestion would be to pack your belongings and head for "higher grounds." In the chapter which follows we will review the psychics predictions regarding which areas will be safe, and which will either be under water or otherwise changed.

Many sensitive individuals believe this unique cosmic event will trigger off a rather unpleasant state of affairs on the earth. Ann Fisher of Albany, New York, who is highly respected for her use of psychic phenomena to find missing persons and locate objects, is among those who agree that this conjunction could spell disaster for all of us. "I feel as the planets move into alignment, their gravitational pull will cause high storms on the sun. These storms will alter wind directions on the earth, reducing the speed of our planet's rotation and will cause some very serious earthquakes. I feel that the San Andreas Fault will split letting the outer section separate from the land mass and go into the sea. People living in California will get a warning and many will leave before this happens. I also feel the east coast will be hit around Boston, Cape Cod and the New York City area. Many people will go to Canada for it will be safer and much warmer there."

Thelma Terrell, whom we have mentioned throughout our writing, has received some direct communications on this very subject from one of her space contacts, Captain Avalon, a space commander of the Interplanetary Council, whom she first met in the mountains of New Mexico, and later continued to speak with him via telepathy. Capt. Avalon's ideas happen to coincide pretty closely with what scientists Gribbin and Plagemann have already said about the subject. However, Capt. Avalon adds a bit of cosmic philosophy which might enhance our mundane thinking. "Expect an abnormal abundance of electrical storms, thunder, tornadoes and lightning," he warns. "Because of the electricity bouncing off the planet, there will be more lightning than the world has ever seen. There will be electricity in the air. There will be great flashes in the sky. You must avoid looking at the sky. You must not go outside of your house, but remain inside with the curtains drawn. Your eyes must not be exposed to these powerful flashes during these three dark days -- really three days of flashing lights. The heavy, impenetrable room-darkening type of shades at each window would be wise for this purpose for the sky will be like unto your July 4th celebrations, but on a cosmic scale. Calls to God, and the elements and the Space Brothers can keep these sparks away from your homes and your area. When these things begin to manifest, your televisions and electrical appliances must be unplugged from your current. This particular phenomena will last about three days. Gradually the skies will darken, but there will be such a quantity of electricity in the atmosphere that it will not seem dark. As you already know, there will be scattered through the alignment period adverse disturbances in weather situations and of a geological nature. You are already seeing these beginnings in the abundance of earthquakes this current year, volcanic activity, prolonged drought and record break-heat waves. Your winters and summers will not fit into preconceived patterns. Be prepared for extremes of heat and cold and loss of crops resulting from this.

"These alignment situations will occur against the backdrop of continuing inflation and economic pressures, as well as internationally threatening events. No positive result can come from the murderous slaughter of war. In war, everyone loses and no one wins. Guardian rescue and Divine intervention is hopefully taking the form of total prevention of such an eventuality. Let those who plan for war in their secret chambers take heed. The Higher Ones who make these decisions are working toward total prevention, while as well taking into account all of the balancing actions involved. We of the Space Federation do not consider war a positive thing that will be permitted. Such an eventuality is closely related to the change within the hearts and minds of mankind. Problems associated with the planetary alignment are those with which we are primarily concerned at present. There will be much loss of life in these, but those who are destined by personal choice to survive, whose Light will be needed immediately afterwards, will be lifted out by us if situations warrant this action. They will be cared for by us until the distress is passed. If the homes remain, they will be returned to them to carry on, but if not, homes will be provided elsewhere."

"VALUABLES" TO BRING ALONG

Naturally, if the world blows up, turns to ashes, or flips on its axis, all the tea -- or money in China won't be of any use to survivors. Yet, if your house is burning down, or you are on a ship and it is sinking, you usually don't leave behind all your valuables. Its human nature to take that which is dearest to you, or that which you have worked the hardest for. If our cities collapse and we have to take to the road, as has been predicted, what should we make certain to take with us?

Chicago psychic Warren Freiberg has a few thoughtful suggestions on this matter. "Forget about taking money with you. Paper money and even coins won't be worth anything," he points out. "Food will be scarce and people won't want to part with what they have in exchange for worthless currency. Remember a dollar bill isn't worth anything in itself, its only valuable because the U.S. Government stands behind it. In all likelihood the government as we know it now will be dissolved or at least totally ineffective to the point where nobody will be willing to listen to our former leaders as they will come to see the folly of their ways. If possible start saving things like silver and gold pieces, and also gems. Such items are always of value, but best of all they are relatively small and easy to carry on your person. My suggestion would be to turn your savings into diamonds or small gold coins. Eventually, the banks will shut down and all your life savings will go down the drain, so do something about it before its to late."

Robert Short's space contacts have informed him during several channeling sessions that the bartering system may be returned in the Last Days. "If you recognize that all have their methods, and thus if they return to their original teaching, which teaches abstinence from those paths which lead only to wrongdoing, and that which has replaced the peoples ability to trade among themselves in humility and honesty, which is called a 'barter system.' They (the banking system and governments) have replaced this with that force which is MONETARY and thus have sold men's minds, bodies and souls into slavery upon your planet. If this ceased among the nations, then will peace come, not rapidly, but it will begin to replace the wrongdoing which had begun centuries before in your time when those of the human had placed value upon metals and gems, and other methods of exchange -- in lieu of that which was the original verbal agreement and handshake between neighbors who were able to trade in true value among themselves. . ." This message was received on February 2, 1979, and in recent conversations, the head of the Solar Space Foundation has revealed that a return to the barter system may become a way of life before the end of our age.

When the time comes to be taken aboard a space ship for a quick trip out of this manmade hell, several of the space entities who have spoken through our channels agree that its alright to bring your personal necessities. "There are many personal items you might desire, which we could not provide, and if these few small things will make you content and happy while you wait, then they should be included. Your own ingenuity will be exercised here, keeping the contents few but vital," remarks Capt. Avalon of the Interplanetary Council.

So remember, keep a small overnight bag packed under your bed and ready to go. I can't say for certain, but they might not have your favorite brand of toothpaste in the outer reaches of the solar system.

MORE SIGNS AND WONDERS

There is only one man I know of who is knowledgeable when it comes to UFOs and believes their mission is an honorable one, and is also a practicing evangelist who has placed his faith in God. Most religious leaders will tell you that flying saucers are the devil's messengers and that when they promise to save us they are only lying. Most ministers and clergymen have not made a serious study of the UFO mystery, because they are dead set against it from the very beginning.

Frank Stranges is quite different in this regard. Not only is he a man of the cloth, but this evangelist claims to have actually met and conversed with a being from another planet. Several years back, Stranges was introduced to a spaceman who said his name was Val Thor, and that he had been living on earth for several years attempting to establish contact with the heads of government. Stranges claims that he spoke to Val Thor in the Pentagon, where the human-looking alien had been staying after proving his superiority and the fact that he came from an advanced civilization. In addition to his church work, Dr. Stranges is the only preacher I know to actually run a UFO group, the National Investigations Committee on Unidentified Flying Objects, which is located at 7970 Woodman Avenue, Van Nuys, California 91402.

Though much of Frank Stranges' teaching is based upon Biblical scripture, he is also familiar with the plan that the UFO intelligence has in store for us, and is thus able to incorporate his thinking on the matter of the End Times. According to Dr. Stranges a third world war is not that far off. He believes the next global conflict will involve Israel, the Arab states, the countries of Western Europe, the USSR, and the United States. This is how he sees the order of events transpiring in the Last Days:

1. MILLIONS WILL VANISH FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH.
2. CHILDREN WILL BE REPORTED MISSING (remember the prediction that the Space Brothers will take our youngsters first),
LOVED ONES GONE, GRAVES OPENED.
3. DISTRESS OF NATIONS, SUCH AS NEVER BEFORE TRANSPIRED ON THIS PLANET.
4. TRANSPORTATION WILL BE A MAJOR PROBLEM.
5. FROM THIS POINT ON, A SERIES OF PRESIDENTIAL ORDERS WILL BE ISSUED TO THE AUTHORITIES ON THIS PLANET, PLACING EVERY LIVING PERSON IN THE U.S. UNDER COMPLETE DICTATORSHIP!
6. ONCE THE "CHOSEN" HAVE BEEN REMOVED, THE PRESIDENT WILL:
 - A. Take over all communication media.
 - B. Take over all petroleum, gas, fuel, electric power, etc.
 - C. Take over all food resources, farms, etc.
 - D. Take over all modes of transportation, highways, airports.
 - E. Mobilize all civilians into work forces under government supervision.
 - F. Take over all health, welfare and education.
 - G. Postmaster authorized to conduct nationwide registration of ALL persons.
 - H. Take over all airplanes, aircraft, including private planes.
 - I. Take over all housing, financing -- to relocate people, build with public funds in certain designated areas.

THE HOPI PROPHECIES

As we have repeatedly tried to communicate throughout this book, it is not one particular sect, cult or religious denomination, that is responsible for these forecasts of doom. Just about every culture on earth seems to realize that we are treading on very dangerous water, and that the future looks quite bleak.

For example, the great American Indian tribe, the Hopi feel strongly about this subject. Several years ago the Hopi Indian prophets attempted to get inside the United Nations in New York, where they could present their findings regarding the End Times (based upon a sacred stone tablet which the tribe has had for many generations) to the General Assembly, and ask that the White Man's ways be mended before it is too late. Said Chief Dan Katchongva, "Many people, living at this time, will live to see the White Brother return to the earth, and when they do they will live to consider what they could have heard if they had permitted the original inhabitants of these, the Americas, to give a message to that great body of people." Chief Katchongva was not allowed to deliver his End Times message to the U.N. delegates, and for this he voiced his sad concern. The following Hopi prophecies are given as signs by this American indian tribe, that we should all be aware of:

1. A SERIES OF EARTHQUAKES WILL BE FELT THROUGHOUT THIS LAND, AND WILL COME AS WARNINGS TO THE PEOPLE TO REPENT. IF THEY DO NOT HEED THESE WARNINGS AND REPENT BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE, A BAD EARTHQUAKE WILL STRIKE, DEVASTATING MANY CITIES AND RESULT IN THE DEATH OF LARGE MASSES OF PEOPLE.
2. FLOODS WILL BE SEEN IN PLACES WHERE THEY HAVE NEVER BEEN SEEN BEFORE.
3. THERE WILL BE A GREAT CLIMATICAL CHANGE WORLDWIDE; HOT/COLD, DRY/WET. IN EACH CASE IT WILL BE THE WORST IN RECORDED HISTORY.
4. THERE WILL BE FAMINE, PESTILENCE, DISEASE, AND PLAGUE THROUGHOUT THE LAND.
5. THE HOPI WERE WARNED NEVER TO DEPEND UPON GREAT INVENTION THAT WOULD BE BROUGHT TO THEM BY THE WHITE RACE. THEY WERE TOLD THAT A LIGHTING SYSTEM WOULD BE ESTABLISHED THROUGHOUT THE LAND, AND ALL ONE HAD TO DO WAS TOUCH THE WALL TO LIGHT THE ROOM. HOWEVER, ONE DAY, WE WERE TOLD, THIS SYSTEM WOULD BE CUT OFF AT ONCE, AND THE PEOPLE WOULD BE LEFT IN PANIC. WE WERE ALSO WARNED AGAINST RUNNING WATER THAT WOULD COME INTO OUR HOMES. THIS WATER WILL BE POLLUTED, AND ANYONE DEPENDING ON IT WILL DIE OR GET TERRIBLY SICK.
6. THERE WILL BE TERRIBLE FIGHTING ALL OVER THE LAND! CITY AGAINST CITY, VILLAGE AGAINST VILLAGE, AND FAMILY AGAINST FAMILY. THE HOPI WERE WARNED TO STAY ON THEIR RESERVATION.

7. THE MOON WILL TURN TO BLOOD, AND THE SUN WILL HIDE ITS FACE WITH SHAME.

8. THE SEASONS WILL CHANGE, AND ICE WILL FLOW FROM THE NORTH COUNTRIES.

The Hopi's believe that a messiah, a true white brother wearing a red cap and red cloak, will return to the earth and will try to straighten out our affairs for us. Apparently, the Hopi's are quite familiar with UFOs, and have seen them many times hovering over their hunting grounds, and later near their reservations. Their legends take into consideration the fact that we are not the only intelligent beings to reside in God's universe.

AND ATLANTIS SHALL RISE

"I feel that the lost continent of Atlantis will rise and it will be a place which man will want to colonize, for he will be looking for new frontiers to settle."

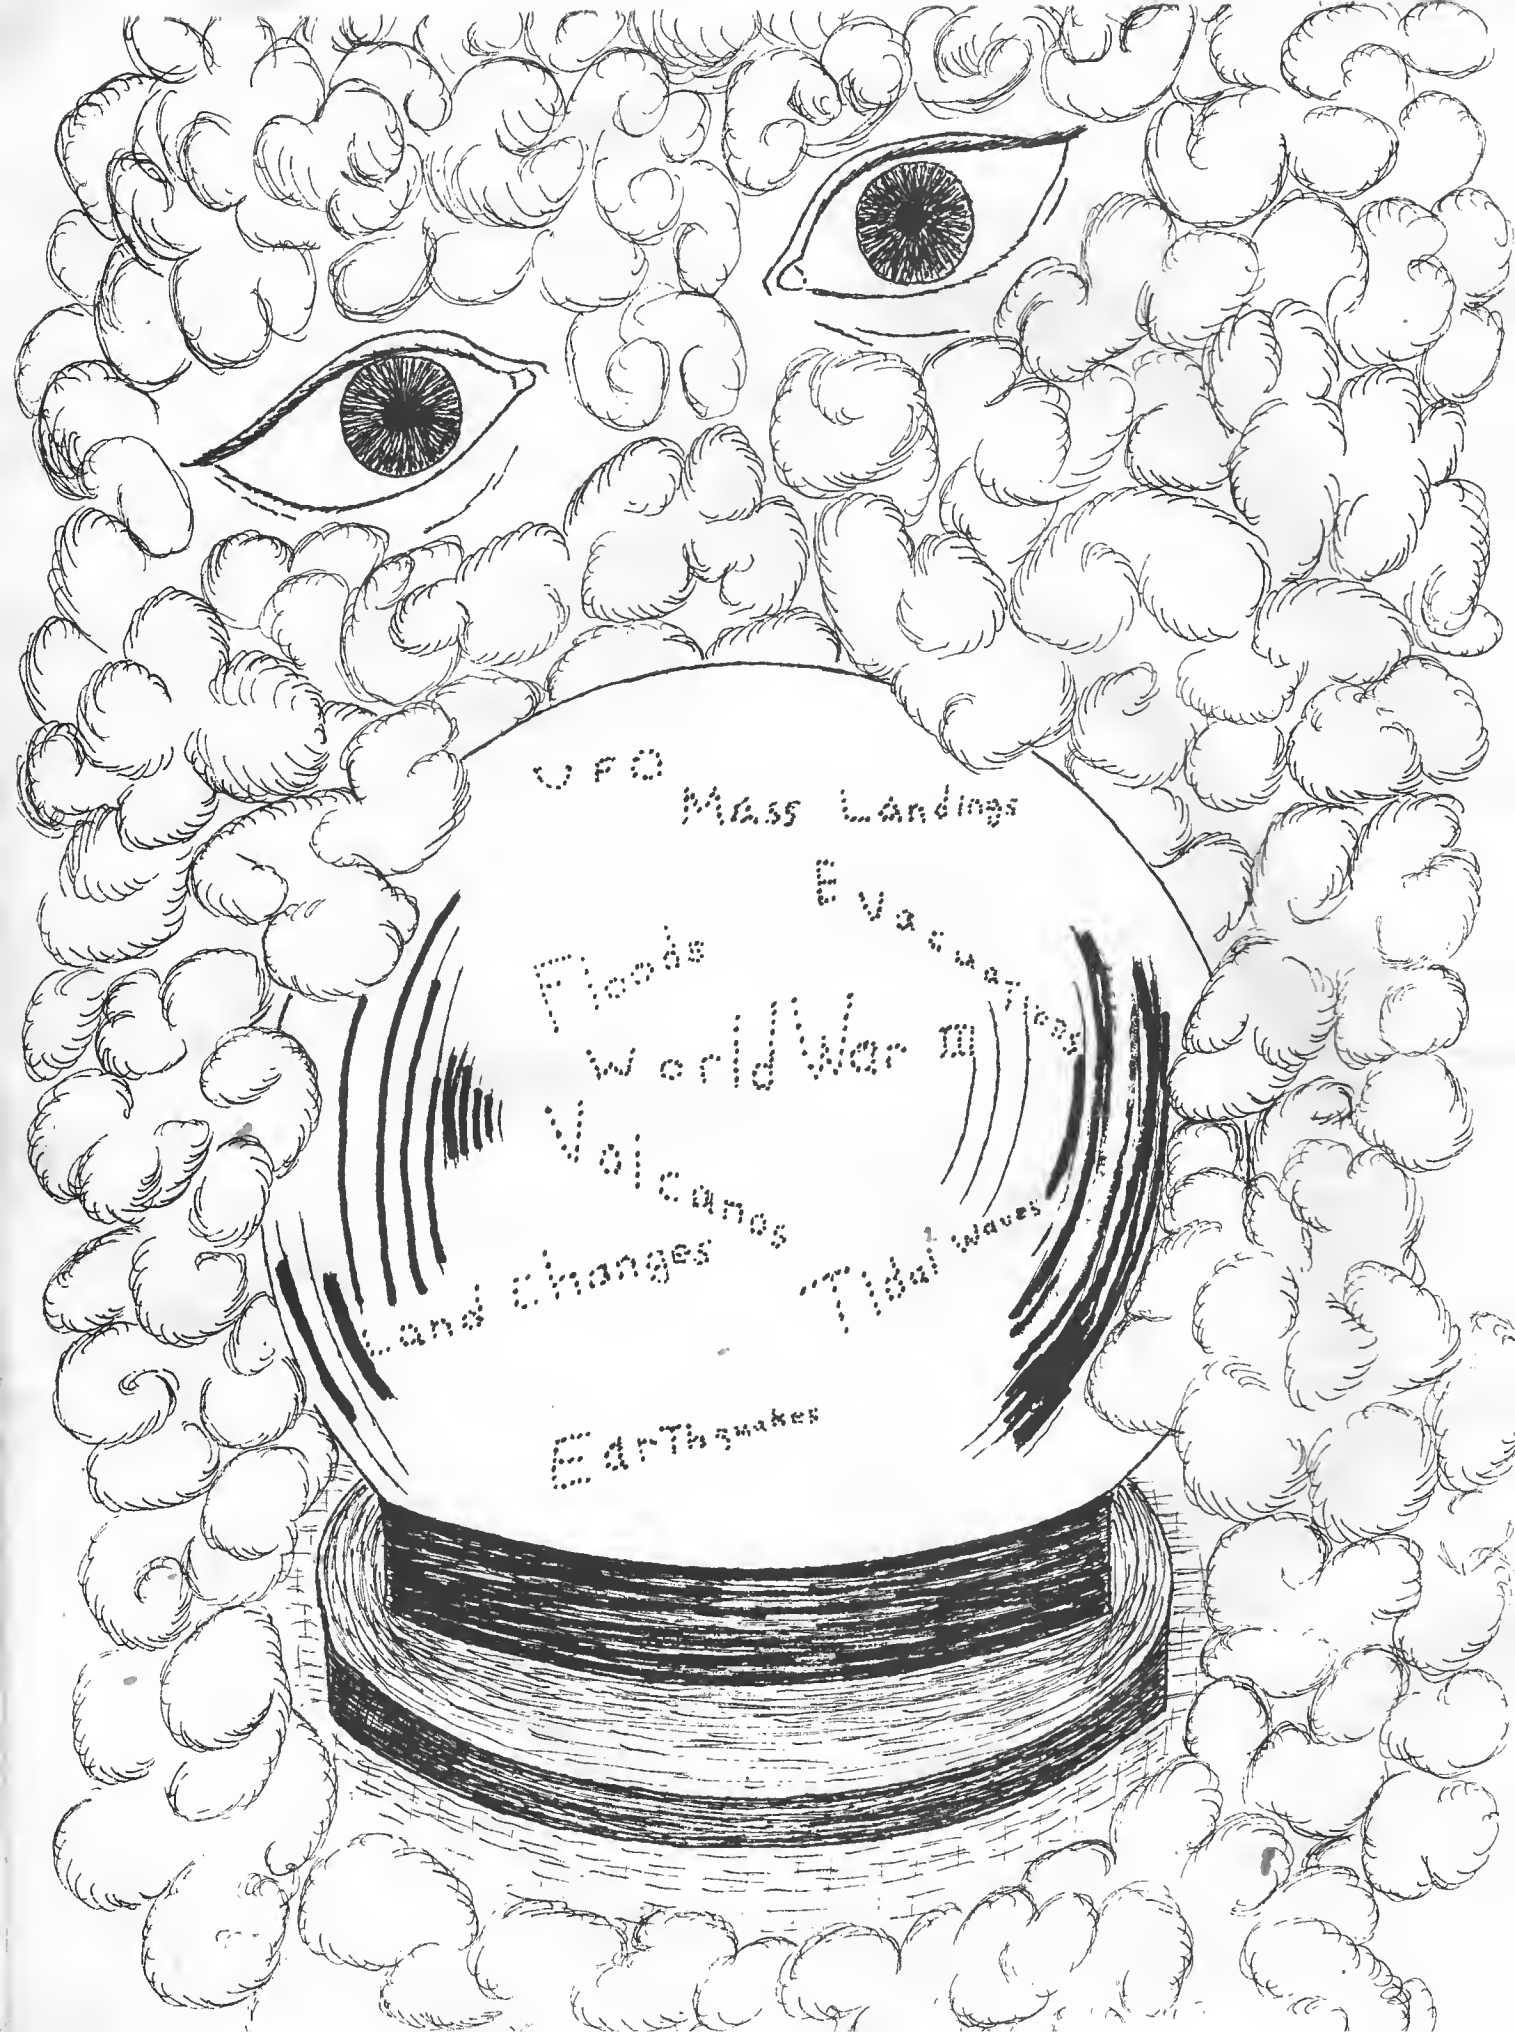

Prediction by Ann Fasher
Albany, N.Y. Psychic

Many of those involved in the casting off of the old system, and the development of a New Age, feel that we are not the first culture on earth to develop scientifically and technically. They contend that eons ago another "Super Civilization" existed on this planet and destroyed itself much as we are about to do. Psychics believe the continent of Atlantis will rise in the End Times, more than likely just after the sinking of California's coast line. Already, underwater explorers have located the ruins of what some believe to be Atlantis in the waters off the coast of Bimini. Located in the area known as the Bermuda Triangle -- where many planes and ships have mysteriously disappeared -- the ruins remain a puzzle and strange laser-like beams of lights have been seen coming up from the ocean's bottom, indicating that some of the ancient machinery from Atlantis may still be in working order.

In an issue of the Solar Space Letter published by Robert Short (P.O.Box 622, Joshua Tree, Calif. 92252), tell us that there will be a recurrence of the Atlantean period. "There is a precedent for the incident we spoke about of, which could bring about that which you speak of as Armageddon, in those areas, which are a part of those nations who are the sons and daughters of Ibrahim, or Abraham, in the early recorded eras upon your planet. Who were the descendants of those of the ancient land continent, which was DESTROYED BY WEAPONS WHICH NOW PREVAIL UPON YOUR PLANET, which was found in the MIDST OF THE WATERS, which parted, and it was rent assunder, and many were lost. These were called by you, the ANCIENT ATLANTEANS, or ALT-LANTEANS (old ones), which is referred to in that of your mythology, or legends of your past."

One belief has it that some of the Atlanteans escaped by building vast space ships and traveling to other stars. I am inclined to believe that some of the UFOs we see are piloted by former Atlanteans come back to assist the space people in removing us when necessary.

CHAPTER NINE: WHAT THE PROPHETS AND SEERS PREDICT

If the terrifying events we have read about in the previous chapters must come to pass, then certainly we should be among those individuals who know exactly what precautions to take and where to go in order to be relatively safe and secure (at least until we have the opportunity to be "picked up" by our alien friends). In order to get a good overview of just this very subject, we have called upon a representative number of psychics and seers to give their opinions on this topic, based upon strong clairvoyant hunches. The first such person we hear from is the wife of well known parapsychologist, Brad Steiger.

AN IMPORTANT VISION

On May 22, 1979, Brad and Francie Steiger were en-route to San Juan, Puerto Rico, where they had been invited to participate in a seminar on psychic phenomena. During the flight from New York to the islands, Francie had a vision which instructed her to warn those people who live in coastal regions that these locations would become dangerous during the approaching time of transition.

Francie spoke distinctly of the various changes that are to take place: "Those who live on the coastal regions of all countries will be in danger during the time of transition, which will accelerate in the 1980s.

"The entire Earth will experience many disasters -- quakes, floods, splittings, and famine. An inner shift of energies, of polarities, will occur, shaking our very foundation. Those who seek to live by the Spirit must be strong in the years which lie ahead. All will be affected by these many catastrophes in varying degrees."

According to Brad Steiger, who was with his wife at the time of her vision, the changes that she saw happening took the form of a great three-pronged split that extended down from the North Pole region.

"In the manner of a three-taloned claw, this will gravely affect the Earth's crust and will cause considerable devastation. This

"There are many entities of varying descriptions who have been interacting with humanity for thousands of years," contends Francie Steiger. At an early age, the attractive author of "Reflections From An Angel's Eye," established contact with beings who she maintains "exist among us in dimensions invisible to the average person."

three-taloned claw will encompass half of the world, and will indicate areas of great tension and stress."

Francie, in her vision, saw the exact location of the three talons and the effect -- a far reaching one -- that they will have on the planet.

THE FIRST TALON WILL CROSS DIAGONALLY DOWNWARD OVER THE EASTERN REGION OF THE SOVIET UNION, THEN LOWER INTO EASTERN CHINA.

THE SECOND TALON WILL STRETCH DIAGONALLY DOWNWARD ACROSS CENTRAL CANADA AND INTO MID-CALIFORNIA.

THE THIRD TALON WILL CROSS CENTRAL GREENLAND, FROM NORTH-WEST TO EAST, MOVE DOWNWARD INTO THE MEDITERRANEAN AND INTO NORTHERN AFRICA.

"These are the places," Francie contends, "where major tensions will exist during the coming electromagnetic shifting of the polar regions.

"Areas on either side of the three gripping talons will be affected," she adds, "but all land near the coastal regions will suffer to an even greater degree with quakes, floods, great winds, and climatical changes. Those areas further inland will be the least afflicted.

"The time of great devastation has occurred on Earth twice before. On the first occasion, there were only animals on the planet. On the second occasion, people suffered the catastrophes, and many earlier cultures and civilizations were destroyed. Francie's channel stated during this vision that, "These great devastations are vibrational, accumulative events which are natural to this planet. No one knows the exact time the fast-approaching devastation will begin, but it will be soon, quite likely before 1999."

Francie was told that in order to discover the "safe" places during the coming cataclysms, one must first "feel" and meditate upon those areas which are the strongest. When choosing a place to live, one must select a solid area that can withstand great strain.

"Feel those areas which emanate the least vibrations," Francie advised. "Study the topography of all regions and ascertain those which are the driest. Areas near bodies of water of any major proportion are in danger. Water in vast amounts will shift, take different courses, different directions, and be jarred from present boundaries. The amount of miles inland which will be considered a safe area will depend upon the size of the body of water it is near.

"Even in the driest of areas, far from water, the present emanations existing suggest splittings, shiftings, settlings, and major cave-ins. These ground shifts will occur not only in regions near the three-pronged strain, but in particular areas that were once seabeds, where underground caverns now exist. These regions will not be able to withstand the shaking, the shifting and the strain."

Francie maintains that the safest regions will likely be the "desert regions -- as long as one takes into consideration those areas which are presently desert, but are dangerous due to their proximity to large bodies of water."

According to the information channeled through Francie the following areas are to be sought out as the safest regions on the planet:

- * MAJOR PARTS OF ARIZONA,
- * THE SOUTHERN PART OF COLORADO,
- * THE LARGE, WESTERN AREA OF NEW MEXICO, AND THE NORTHERN REGION OF MEXICO,
- * INLAND AUSTRALIA WILL BE SAFE, AS IS MID-ARABIA, THE SOUTHWEST SOVIET UNION, AND THE DRIEST REGION OF NORTHWEST CHINA.

During the course of her vision, Francie was instructed to tell, "You, who are Star People, to permit your 'mark on the forehead,' the so-called 'Third Eye,' to lead you to safety. as you keep in mind the regions above, meditate upon the area of thought that feels safe to you. You are aware that the dangerous emanations and regions do exist. Your inner guidance will help you make your final decision in ascertaining your safest place. Don't do it."

Concludes Francie: "All people of Spirit must be ready to share their energies during this time. The Star People's capacity to love will be greater, as they observe the birth throes of a New World of higher vibrational frequencies. Love must be the guiding force in all that we undertake. The next two decades will be among the most important that humankind has ever faced. The entire species is about to face its moment of decision."

PROPHECIES OF THE STAR PEOPLE

Recently, Brad and Francie Steiger asked of those Star People they are in contact with, what they felt regarding the dates for various Earth-altering events. Here is a consensus of their opinion:

- A WORLDWIDE FAMINE HAS ALREADY BEGUN, BUT IT WILL WORSEN IN 1982.
- WORLD WAR III MAY BREAK OUT BETWEEN 1982-85.
- ARMAGEDDON, THE CLASSIC, LAST GREAT BATTLE BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL, WILL BEGIN IN 1989 OR 1990.
- WORLDWIDE UFO CONTACT IS QUIETLY BEGINNING NOW. SUCH CONTACT WILL CONTINUE TOWARD ITS APEX IN 1986.
- THE NEW AGE HAS ALREADY BEGUN, BUT IT WILL HAVE ITS UPS AND DOWNS UNTIL THE YEAR 2000.
- EARTH CHANGES ARE ALREADY TREMBLING MANY PARTS OF THE PLANET, BUT THEY WILL SPORADICALLY SHUDDER THE GLOBE IN EARNEST FROM 1984 UNTIL THE END OF THE CENTURY.

The Steigers' agree that living amongst us now are the "Star Helpers" who will aid humankind as sort of midwives during the birth throes of the New World and the New Human. They see technology as playing a much smaller role in the lives of nations than the spirit, for "the essence of man is his intellect and his soul. Machines, associations, political parties and trade balances are but transitory realities, which must ultimately wither, decay and come to nothing. The only lasting truths are soul, imagination and inspiration. We believe that each man and woman, in moments of quiet meditation, may learn to enter the silence, enrich the soul and achieve a spiritual linkup with the blessed harmony that governs the Universe."

And while they are convinced that our existence is about to go through some mighty changes, they also believe equally as strong that the out come will be a more desirable world on which to live and gain knowledge.

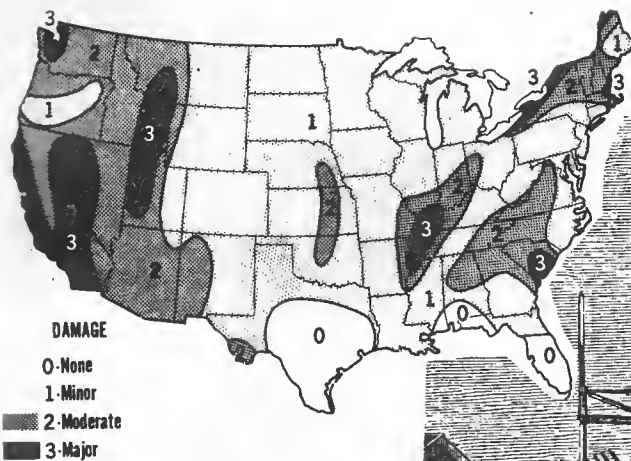

AND CALIFORNIA SHALL FALL INTO THE SEA

To a person, all the psychics we have discussed this matter with, seem convinced that California's days are numbered, that it shall fall into the sea. Most psychics are relatively certain that the slippage of the West Coast will be among the first of the truly great catastrophies, and will usher in many of the other traumatic events we have unlocked the seal of knowledge on.

Helen Cassimos is not a "professional" when it comes to seeing into the future. But, once or twice during her life she has had what she believes are definite clairvoyant experiences which allowed her to project her mind to a date months or even years from the present. "It all started one hot summer night," the talented photographer explained. "It was probably around 4 A.M. and I was still tossing and turning in bed trying to get to sleep. Before I realized what was happening I found myself standing atop a mountain from where I could see the shores of California for miles. The winds were sending the sea water a half mile into the air. Suddenly, the earth trembled, the ground shook with a mighty force and I could see the far-off villages and towns glowing, as fires blazed out of control.

"I could see heavily populated areas caving-in and the ground just seemed to swell and buckle. Cars moving along the main streets of Los Angeles and San Francisco were swallowed up as the earth shifted to and fro.

"In a matter of minutes portions of California were slipping off into the sea and the screams of a million persons filled the air. I then came to, in a cold sweat, only to realize that what I had just had Certain areas of the country are more prone to quakes than others (above).

Giant quakes have hit Calif. before. During the early part of this century tremors shook San Francisco. Buildings fell to the ground and fires started.

was a psychic impression of what was to come -- a prophecy of a day not too far away when there would be mighty earth changes."

Pauline Sharpe is a 48-year-old Miami psychic who uses the spiritual name of Yolanda in her work as co-director of the Mark-Age MetaCenter, an organization dedicated to preparing our planet for the much discussed "Golden Age," slated to transpire after the end of the "Harvest Period," the age when "all error will be swept from the earth and from the minds of those men who would remain as they are now."

Yolanda has received many visions as they relate to the End Times. She accomplishes this deed by relaxing her body and opening her inner eye. "With the inner eye I visualize a darkness, such as a room or a screen. Then I allow the High Self to project ideas, so to speak, into that darkness or void across that screen. When such ideas are given I try to cling to them, allowing them to develop. Sometimes I can achieve this only for a few minutes, but often for hours." Yolanda admittedly owes a great deal to her space contacts. "The Space Brothers are here to teach us there is a federation of planets," she states. "I act as a spokesman for them and it is my job to teach and help awaken our spirits to rise to higher levels of awareness." Yolanda's primary contact is a space being named Zumah who transmits messages from a mothership high above the surface of the earth. More than any other group of individual, Yolanda and her co-worker Mark, have been able to pinpoint specific changes in our planets crust that may cause land masses to sink and to rise from the depths of the ocean.

These are some of the predictions Yolanda has given out, more-or-less on a state-by-state basis; along with the date each vision took place.

WASHINGTON AND OREGON

In the valleys between the Cascade and the Bitterfoot Mountains, the Blue and the Wallowa Mountains, and in the valleys between central and northeastern Oregon there is a sense of greed, selfishness, lack of cooperation; even snobbishness is expressed in these Umatilli and Yakima Valley regions. There is lushness and abundance, an obvious material success through the land in these fruit and wheat bowls. The elements have been generous here, but man has hoarded and has exploited his fellow-man. Since love, thanks and humility are not felt and given freely, it shall be forced through nature.

(November 20, 1966)

CALIFORNIA

San Francisco itself will experience severe earthquakes during the next ten years, but it is not likely that it will suffer irreparable damage. Between Vallejo and the Golden Gate Bridge there will be irretrievable losses, but the area south of that will survive the stresses better than is presently anticipated.

(December 7, 1966)

The gradual rising of the continent of Lemuria in the Pacific will change the ocean currents between southern Washington and central California. This activity will create a more bay-like temperament in the waters and will change the weather conditions radically for this western coast, thereby also altering other conditions that depend on the weather. For example, the fog and rainy atmosphere of San Francisco area will clear, and the weather there will be much milder, by ten or twenty degrees.

Tidal waves will result, sweeping across the continent to the Rockies. But they will not cover the entire coastal region; only small sections will be troubled.

(December 7, 1966)

Sacramento may well become one of the most important capital cities in the United States, since California may be the most significant state in the union. After some land shifts, new gold pockets will be opened.

(December 10, 1966)

The Santa Monica Mountains from Sherman Oaks to Universal City are to be radically changed, flattened by erosion and unprecedented storms.

(January 5, 1967)

The area of California that will be most dangerous is between the San Bernardino National Forest and the Santa Ana Mountains and includes the cities of Riverside, Palm Springs and Corona. A network of connecting underground tunnels will experience a series of explosions, such as caused by underground volcanoes, which eventually will destroy the foundation or crust support in this region. It will result in the land caving in due to erosion, heat and tremors.

(January 8, 1967)

It is interesting to take note of the fact that Yolanda's predictions are at least similar in part to the channeled messages received through Thedra, a West Coast prophet who claims a "direct link" with the Space Brothers. "They are to be the ones who awaken to find their beds soaked with the waters of the Pacific, and the place shall be from Seattle to the coast of Chile whereupon the great caps shall roll back unto the Rocky Mountains...Furthermore, the land will be as drenched though not as sunken. The great places of the coast of the Pacific will be no more."

Yolanda's channels repeatedly spoke to her of widespread disasters that would cause havoc to rain on the earth. "And there shall be great ocean liners, liners which shall travel within its waters, which shall be propelled by solar energy of the next age, and with this they shall be unable to travel east to west or from west to east, through what is now the Atlantic Ocean, for it shall have a mountain range which has been thrown up from the bottom of the Atlantic, and it shall be extended into the air to the altitude of 10,000 feet. And it shall be as the Sittur of old, for it was the Light of the world that this land once took her place in the sun. And she went down amid a great shock and a great wave: and it shall be that she shall come up the same way as she went down."

This seems to be a description of the rising of Atlantis which we reviewed a few pages back. All of these events tie in and are likely to occur at roughly the same time, though we do not know the exact day -- no one does!

AND THERE SHALL COME A GREAT TIDAL WAVE

Earlier, we printed a special report by researcher Jon Singer on the increase in earthquakes up and down the entire east coast, and how they are far more severe than any others recorded in the last one hundred years or more. The predictions of the psychics all add up to the fact that these quakes will be increasing both in frequency and in magnitude, and they will be joined by other cataclysmic events.

Barbara Hudson, the UFO channel we talked about previously in chapter seven, has had a total of eight or nine visions of New York City being destroyed.

"Each time I saw New York being hit by a gigantic tidal wave," Barbara states. "In one vision, I saw myself inside Riverside Church somewhere high up -- like in a tower. The only furnishings in the room I was in were a huge cross, a desk and a chair." Through a nearby archway window, Barbara described to me how water seemed to be rising in every direction, covering most of the buildings in the vicinity. "Suddenly, the floor I was standing on gave way, and I was positioned on a ledge looking down several hundred feet into the body of the Church." Here, too, the water was rising, and it seemed that the dark green liquid would reach her in a matter of moments. At this point the vision faded.

On another occasion, while giving medical treatment to a patient in St. Luke's Hospital, at Amsterdam Avenue and 114th Street, where she was an orderly, Barbara described how she had chanced to glance out the hospital window, since the room seemed to be obstructed by a strange color coming from somewhere outside.

"I noticed that the sun looked funny -- almost orange-yellow in color -- with a strange fog that seemed to hover above the skyline. I then heard a rumble and saw water rolling over the city in every direction. Instead of one large tidal wave, the sky looked like an ocean of white-capped waves."

Between nearby Morningside Park and St. Luke's Hospital, Barbara explained, the street split, leaving a wide valley where seconds before hundreds of cars had been moving on it. "At that, I looked back toward my patient for a brief moment and when I turned back the scene below was once again normal."

Barbara Hudson's most frightening experience, however, happened even more recently. She walked over to the kitchen window near where I was seated and looked out through the storm screen. "I was standing by this window and noticed that the sky and sun looked as it had done previously during my visions. I then saw what appeared to be a long grey line above the buildings, which seemed to be moving toward my apartment building."

Initially, Barbara thought this grey line was a strange formation of clouds. "Then I noticed that the air was full of a deafening roar and the buildings were snapping in two as the 'cloud' passed over. As the grey line approached uptown I could see that this line was in reality a huge tidal wave." It hit Riverside Church, Barbara told me as I listened attentively to her story. The force of the impact was so great that the entire foundation crumbled to the ground.

"Seeing this, I grabbed my young daughter by the arm," realizing the tidal wave would soon reach them, "and ran into the hall in an attempt to get to the roof. As I reached the stairway, I noticed that water had already begun to pour in through the skylight and was filling up the stairwell and would reach our position soon."

"I noticed also that the water was seeping under the closed roof door. Frightened I might be swept down the stairs by the force of the raging tide, I opened the door only a crack at first. Seeing that it was only a few inches deep, I pulled the door completely open and carried my daughter to the roof."

Once there, Barbara proceeded to climb onto a vent-type structure which rose an additional three or four feet from the rooftop. But even here the deadly water continued to rise. She stood at the kitchen window, only a few feet away from me, and continued with her frightening vision. "Looking out over the city, I could see an identical situation, with only a few of the really tall buildings left uncovered. For those structures which had not been crushed by the force of the tidal wave itself were now completely covered by the still rising water."

When Barbara came out of her altered state the first thing she remembered is how vivid the vision had been. "I remember saying when I came around, 'Oh, my God, I wish that this would never happen,' but I know it will, sometime in my lifetime."

THE END TIME VISIONS OF ANTHONY AND LYNN VOLPE

I was first introduced to Anthony and Lynn Volpe in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where I had organized an all day conference on the UFO enigma. During a break in the proceedings they came forward to tell me they believed in UFOs and had actually made contact with amphibian beings from the constellation of Pegasus. The Ivyland, Pennsylvania couple say that they have put together musical vibrations and recorded it on cassette tape and actually brought in a UFO during 1977, much like the scientists in Close Encounters of the Third Kind attempted to do. "This music appears to have magical qualities about it," the heads of a local UFO group maintain, adding, that if they get permission from "our space friends," they may play the tape at a future seminar of mine and attempt to bring in a UFO, "or some sort of manifestation."

Regarding End Time prophecies the Volpe's say that the east coast will be flooded out before too many years have passed.

Here is Lynn's account of her various experiences:

"For the past seven years I have had visionary dreams of the flooding out of the eastern seaboard. The Atlantic Ocean would be seen moving in over the coastal areas rapidly and steadily. In my vision my house was uprooted and in astral travel, I was able to look down over the east coast, and it looked like the middle of the Atlantic. This flooding out will take place over a two year period and will also include the midwestern section of the country, almost as far as the Mississippi River, Illinois and Indiana.

"In one vision I saw many small fissures in the earth, opening up along the east coast, pulling apart the land and causing water to erupt from these openings. These are 'mimi fault lines' of which scientists know nothing.

"Another time, Trenton, New Jersey was being flooded out. People in the city were going up to the top of high rise buildings. There was a book there where people were checking to see if there name had been entered. This was called 'Mary's Book of Records.'

"These tidal waves and small cracks were being aggravated by constant atomic explosions. This 'baptism' of the east coast will be like a cleansing and redemption of the earth which will help people toward a greater awakening of universal brotherhood."

The visions of the Volpe's are quite stimulating to our mind, as they confirm what we have learned from other sources. Anthony recently found himself on board a space ship looking down at the earth as great changes were taking place. "It was as if I belonged there, as sort of a 'dual existence' (author's note: Is this another possible example of 'Blends' or 'Star People' experiencing End Time events?). I looked down through a viewing port which was like a window in the floor and saw the earth, which appeared as large as a grapefruit at arms length. It was my task to record what I was about to see, as I knew something important was to transpire at that moment; namely, changes within the earth's structure. Suddenly, the earth expanded as if it were a balloon being filled with air. It expanded about twenty per cent and then returned to its normal size. While in the expanded state, the topographical features were all disturbed. However, when the earth 'regrouped itself' or returned to its normal size, the surface was once again normal. As all this was taking place, I was busy recording the events from on board the space craft."

Frankly, I'm intrigued about Lynn Volpe's vision involving constant atomic explosions along the east coast which would aggravate the already horrifying series of events caused by earth tremors. One of the psychics Robert Short has worked with says that in a trip to the future he witnessed similar events. "In Oak Ridge, Chatanooga, Knoxville (Tennessee) six nuclear reactors and power plants went off almost simultaneously. The earthquakes in this area just broke the reactors apart...Its now a desert there." Food for thought, but not very pleasant tasting, indeed!

Here are just a few of Yolanda's predictions involving the states along the east coast, as dispensed by her group known as Mark Age:

FLORIDA AND GEORGIA

In the time of great land upheavals, southern Georgia (between Albany and Eastman) to central Florida will remain virtually intact and will be a reservoir for supplies, such as food and cotton, and would be an aid in regrowth and redevelopment for other areas which are to be changed. This area in central Georgia is the heart of a conservation belt and this is the reason light workers, groups and sanctuaries have been attracted to it.

(September 28, 1966)

NORTH CAROLINA AND TENNESSEE

At the southernmost tip of the Blue Ridge Mountains in North Carolina, just before reaching the Smoky Mountains (which are predominantly in Tennessee), I received that this area was to be changed. The mountains will shift from north of Atlanta, Georgia, to Asheville, North Carolina, and including Knoxville, Tennessee, to Oak Ridge where the Atomic Energy Commission is based.

(September 30, 1966)

VIRGINIA

From Danville to Virginia Beach the atmosphere is invigorating and healthy. This has been noticeable in the past, and it continues to be vigorous. In Norfolk a projection of power through us for peace, love and brotherhood was anchored to help avert racial and industrial disturbance. This area must act as a leveraging agent in future natural upheavals. Richmond, the capital of Virginia, has certain positive and energetic forces due to general vigor of the entire state of awareness.

YOLANDA AND MARK FROM THE MARK AGE FOUNDATION.

(October 4 & 5, 1966)

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The atmosphere in the nation's capital and its outlying districts is very disturbing. There is confusion and hustle without spiritual significance, roads which are more a maze than routes for transportation. There is an ominous feeling regarding the safety of this city. . . There will be a collapse in Washington, some form of tragedy, some cataclysm; which does not refer necessarily to natural holocaust, but to that realm of human thoughts and thus of human acts.

(October 7, 1966)

As you can tell many sections will be unsafe and these are the places that should be kept away from once the signs have begun to appear all around us. However, according to Yolanda and Mark Age there will be places to go. These are some of the suggested regions:

TEXAS

Texas functions as a balance wheel...Its mission is to demonstrate balance of opportunity, or utilizations of mineral, vegetable and animal life. In these days of international and interplanetary interests it is unlikely that Texans will lose sight of the spiritual purpose behind their state's function. And with balance and integrity, health and wholeness in its citizens, it can be the center and pride of all the American people.

(November 12, 1966 and January 22, 1967)

COLORADO

The Rockies will protect much of the central continent from the forthcoming Pacific Ocean tidal waves. Water may immerse the lower ranges, but not much will spill over as could spoil Denver or other cities on the eastern slopes. From the Rockies to the Mississippi River will be the safest areas from which to rebuild the nation. Much of this region will remain unspoiled, with vast sections mentally and physically unpolluted by man.

(November 14, 1966)

PENNSYLVANIA

The Allegheny Mountains are embedded with the feelings of grace, beauty, stability and security. The elements themselves seemed to reassure us, as we motored through. No matter what catastrophes occur in the impending earth changes ahead, here you will be safe, protected and productive.

(August 28, 1964)

ILLINOIS

This state is what we call the heart center of a new civilization. For this reason it has to be kept pure and uncontaminated. The area is favorable to much planting. The development of Lostant, Illinois, approximately forty miles north of Bloomington, may explode due to a mineral discovery, probably oil.

(November 6, 1966)

We would be admiss to claim that it is within the scope of this book to print even a small per cent of the prophecies that have come through Yolanda. We have had to "water down" (and please excuse the pun) much of that which has been received by this particular channel. Should interest exist to obtain further details not covered here we know you would be welcome to write to Mark Age Associates at 327 N.E. 20th Terrace, Miami, Florida 33137.

THE TIME HAS ARRIVED TO TAKE PRECAUTIONS

With earthquakes due to breakout on a wide scale in the very near future, now is the time to start taking precautions that will enable you to weather the storm. One creative individual who is aware of the End Times prophecies is Joe Campbell of Roseland, Va., a former news anchorman with the Mutual Broadcasting Systems, a radio network with over 150 affiliate stations nationwide. Recently retired from his job as a science correspondent, Joe has started a unique group in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. Known as "Kenton - Turning Earth Group," it is his goal to supply so-called "Doomsday Crafts" to the public. "If these events we have heard about start happening in 1982 or thereabouts, people will need a craft built specifically to meet such a catastrophe in order to survive in certain areas." Joe has recently completed a prototype of such a craft. The imposing structure is a 22-foot sphere made from interlocking triangles of wood, braced with steel bars and cable. It is then sprayed with polyurethane, a plastic, and coated with cement. The cement is weighted toward the bottom, so that it will float without overturning.

Weighing 16 tons and valued at $20,000 the craft has two interior decks, one with bunks, galley, bathroom and storage holds, the other the main living area. A "crow's nest" at the top level has 19 scientific instruments -- everything from a radioactivity meter to a complete weather station. A few feet above the water line, the ship is rimmed with 30 portholes, plus one large hexagonal window. It will have no means of propulsion other than the movement of the ocean current.

"You could build one on the San Andreas Fault, and if an earthquake struck, you'd soon be floating safely in the Pacific," notes Campbell. For those who cannot afford having such a craft made to order, Joe plans to make available do-it-yourself kits which will give easy-to-read instructions. "This may all seem far-fetched to some people," admits the former newsman, "but in the days ahead I think people will be thankful that such a device exists and can provide them with a degree of safety and comfort they might not be able to enjoy otherwise."

It is indeed interesting to discover that the idea of this being the start of the End Times has passed beyond the involvement of psychics and UFO channels, and has now penetrated into other echelons of society. That gentlemen the likes and caliber of Joe Campbell should devote their time and energy to this field, is a strong indication that we should take these warnings more seriously.

Joe Campbell works on "Doomsday Craft" which he says can survive almost any disaster.

CHAPTER TEN: THE ULTIMATE DISASTER AND THE AWAKENING

The ultimate disaster that may be in the offering is a polar shift in which our entire planet would flip end over end in space. The result would be an upheaval the likes of which we can only imagine. If the earth were to slip from its current axis, the polar ice caps could end up in the tropical zone, and our warm climates would turn suddenly cold.

John White, a Cheshire, Connecticut resident, and a veteran researcher in the fields of parascience and consciousness awakening, has spent the past several years collecting a wealth of material pertaining to this great pole shift. A former research associate of astronaut Edgar Mitchell, the articulate magazine and book author believes that there is a good possibility the earth rotated at least once before, and is likely to do so once again sometime before the year 2000.

In order to get to the bottom of the matter, White has spent considerable time checking out the predictions of both select scientists and New Age seers who maintain that Terra Firma is in for a mighty jolt in the not so distant future.

"There are three main groups that independently predict a pole shift in this century," states White. "The first are the ancient prophecies spoken of in the Bible and by such soothsayers as Nostradamus. The second group is made up of contemporary psychics such as Edgar Cayce and Rev. Paul Solomon who maintain that on May 5, 2000, there will be a grand alignment of the planets which will induce shifting of the earth's crust. There is also Aaron Abrahams, a psychic in Washington State who says that in the year 1999 or 2000 the Earth will tumble on its axis a full 180 degrees, but the core of the earth will tumble only about 90 degrees so that the poles will in effect be projecting through the Equatorial regions. At this moment the present ice caps will build up in the polar locations. In addition to the ancient prophecies and the contemporary psychics, there are modern scientifically-oriented researchers who also claim that there is a pole shift coming."

Among the scientists White refers to are Hugh Auchincloss Brown, an electrical engineer who before his death at the age of 96, devoted more than 60 years of his life to the promulgation of his theory that a vast polar ice cap would tip the earth over toward the end of this century and wipe out civilization. Also, quoted by White in his book "Poleshift" (published by Doubleday) are the likes of Chan Thomas, a West Coast-based cosmologist, Charles Hapgood, a friend of Albert Einstein, and Adam Barber, an independent investigator who started his own foundation for advocates of the polar shift theory.

At a symposium which I organized in April, 1980, in New York, John White revealed the fact that his research has fully determined that a number of UFO contactees and channels have also been predicting a polar shift, as sort of a climax to earth changes that are getting under way now and will be continuing right on through to the end of this century. In particular he mentioned the predictions received through Biard Wallace in Grosskill, Michigan from the UFO intelligence.

"The Space Brothers told Biard and his group that the whole solar system is moving into a new sector of space where the vibratory quality is going to be such as to change consciousness in the human race. At the same time, a new star will come into the solar system which will shift the center of gravity from its present location to another one as the solar system becomes a binary star solar system. The shift of the center of gravity from where it is located now will affect all the other planets. Some will leave their orbits. Others will just get a good shaking up." As John points out, a pole shift could conceivably be devastating not only to our world, but to far distant planets as well.

What I find so fascinating about John White's work is that he looks at the potential outcome of a global disaster in a much different way than you might expect. He tries to see things in a positive light and says that we do have a chance to survive -- that if we are destroyed we will have no one to blame but ourselves.

"Many of the predictions say that it will be the human factor -- we ourselves -- that will be of critical importance in either triggering or preventing these earth changes. In essence the psychics say that the state of our consciousness will determine the outcome of the approaching crisis."

John credits anthropologist and archaeologist, Dr. Jeffrey Goodman with devising a term to cover this human factor which will prove most important in determining our future state of affairs. "In the book 'We Are the Earthquake Generation,' Dr. Goodman uses the word 'Bio-relativity' to describe how human beings are effecting through the power of their thoughts everything that exists around them. Consciously or unconsciously our behavior has an influence on the totality of the earth. In this regard the prophecies tell us that virtuous living and respect for the earth can have a stabilizing impact. Prayer is a familiar form of this influence, but better yet would be the development of a steadily focused consciousness amongst the people that would recognize the mutual dependence of the human race and the cosmos, and the inter-dependence that we have on each other that really makes us the co-creators of our destiny."

John suggests that such a state of consciousness operating among the human race would have a strong, positive bearing on future trials and tribulations. "The native Americans say we should 'Walk in balance on the Earth Mother,' and if we don't the alternative is simple. If we continue our disregard for the sacredness of life, if we continue our crimes against nature and our fellow humans, the outcome could be bleak.

John White's latest literary effort, POLE SHIFT is bound to be a controversial book. In this volume, White examines the prospects of a cataclysmic shifting of the North and South Poles before the end of the century. The results of such an event are huge tidal waves, volcanic eruptions, devastating hurricane winds, and earthquakes. It is the contention of scientists and psychics as well as a number of UFO contactees that such an event will happen in the future as it may have done eons ago.

JOHN WHITE

"The predictions and prophecies all say that if we don't mend our ways we will have created a situation in which the planet is destabilized. The pole shift will result in destroying most life on our planet."

To a man, all of those we have sought knowledge from fully agree that even though these devastating events may occur, after the earth has settled down, a Golden Age will flourish for the first time since the days of Adam and Eve.

"The earth changes," states John White, "will never-the-less open up a niche in the environment for new life forms to emerge. The human race will be cleansed from the Earth Mother because it has become an irritating, infectious disease. But note that it will not be a case of our being punished for our sins. From the prospective of Bio-relativity it will be a case of being punished by our sins. It's instant Karma -- getting back what we give. According to the prophecies there will be some survivors. These survivors will be the seedbed for a new race -- a higher humanity -- which will evolve in an accelerated fashion. The new race will know from first hand experiences what the terrible consequences are for failing to walk in balance upon the Earth Mother. The new race will know how to live in harmony with the cosmos and they will inherit the earth."

A LESSON TO BE LEARNED

As we are about to close this book of revelations, perhaps our outlook on life and our feelings toward our world and the people who we must share this space with, have changed. When you take into consideration all the events that are slated to happen, you can see that it doesn't matter one single bit what your political views are, what church you go to (if any), or how much money you have in the bank. We are all traveling through space at the same speed and toward an identical destiny. Rich or poor, famous or unknown, handsome or ordinary looking, these are definitely not the questions of importance which face us in the Last Days. When the earth tremors start and the volcanoes erupt we are all equal beings circling the sun.

If there is consolation in any of this it must be in the knowledge that we -- the New Agers of the world -- have a jump on the rest of humanity. We have sought the "Light of Understanding" and have grown from that which we have been shown. Many of us have felt the hand of an unseen force during the course of our lives. We know that we are not the only intelligent creatures in the universe, and we know that beings from other realms have been here since the dawn of time to assist us in climbing the ladder to higher vibrations. We realize quite fully that earth is but a stepping stone for us, a schoolhouse where we have been sent to learn a lesson. If we are able to deal with life and death we have nothing to fear, even if it should be too late to stop the impending catastrophies. We know that our existence is eternal, that our spirit lives on, and that it is up to us to determine our true future.

Dear Reader:

Before you put this book aside, please turn the page and take part in a special meditation which has come to us direct from the Ashtar Command. This message was beamed to earth for the express purpose of providing a personal sense of peace, harmony, love and prosperity in each of our lives.

Behold the New Age is before us!

A SPECIAL MEDITATION FOR PEACE, HARMONY, LOVE AND PROSPERITY IN THE NEW AGE. . . BEAMED TO EARTH BY THE ASHTAR COMMAND

ONE MUST MEDITATE ON THE GOODNESS OF CREAT-ION.

MEDITATE ON THE LIGHT IN FRONT OF US.

MEDITATE ON THE GLORY OF LIVING.

MEDITATE ON THE FRUITFULNESS OF LIFE.

Create a glow of unity with the Space Brothers in your Third Eye and make that glow expand. Let that glow consume you. Let that glow consume everything around you.

Meditate on the wholeness. Meditate on that which is beneficial. Meditate on kindness.
Say to yourself:

I AM THE LIGHT OF THE UNIVERSE.
I AM POWERFUL.
I AM GLORIOUS.
I AM A LIVING BEING.

Meditate everyday for five minutes, once in your A.M. and once in your P.M. Send out positive thoughts. Send out harmony. Send out love.

Meditate on the wholeness of the solar system.

If enough people were to meditate in such a manner, the entire world, indeed, the whole universe, would be a much better place in which to reside.

UFOS AND THE SPACE BROTHERS WANT YOU TO SURVIVE DOOMSDAY

Psychics, spiritual leaders, scientists and UFO contactees all agree that we are living in what has been called the END TIMES.

- The foundation of our civilization is about to crumble.
- The Physical world as we know it is going to be destroyed.
- Psychic, spiritual and "other-worldly" forces are about to take over!

THE TRUTH CAN NOW BE TOLD

An in depth study recently conducted by a highly qualified UFO researcher indicates drastic changes in our daily life, as well as in the shape and construction of our very planet, are imminent. This information has been channeled to at least 20 of the most highly respected contactees from more advanced beings who reside on other planets and in other dimensions. Unanimously, they agree that a global catastrophe will soon sweep over our nation as well as the rest of the world.

According to the SPACE BROTHERS whom they are in contact with time is running out. We are being told the Earth is rapidly entering the twelfth — AND FINAL! — hour for humankind. All indications are that a "time bomb of destruction" is about to go off ridding the planet of civilization as we have come to accept it. The Book of Revelations will be tomorrow's headlines as Armageddon engulfs the globe.

There are those who say a THIRD WORLD WAR is on the immediate horizon, that an ecological imbalance is now taking place, and a shifting of the North and South Poles is due, which could tip the earth out of its present orbit and send it hurtling toward the sun.

YOU CAN BE SAVED!

While utter chaos will take place all around us, all of those who have received this highly advanced, truly prophetic warning have said that the "Chosen Ones" who "are ready" will be saved and taken off this planet just in the nick of time.

Our special, fully illustrated report, a 50,000 word book titled PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS IN THE LAST DAYS, is the most comprehensive volume ever put together on the subject of the end times. This is a book that has been called the most important work ever written on the subject. It is a book that will help you to survive the coming of the end times. It is a book that will help you to understand the signs and portents of the end times. It is a book that will help you to prepare for the end times. It is a book that will help you to survive the end times.
